

No. 26.

An Act

For the relief of Philip Graver and others, soldiers and widows of soldiers of the revolutionary war.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the State Treasurer is hereby authorized and required to pay to Philip Graver of Lancaster county, William Flue of Philadelphia county, William Shehen of Beaver county, Richard Lee of Northampton county, Peter Lenhart of Perry county, soldiers, Leah Crawford of Montgomery county, and Elizabeth Muninger of Franklin county, widows of soldiers of the revolutionary war, or their respective orders, forty dollars to each immediately, and an annuity of forty dollars to each during life, payable half yearly, to commence on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

SECTION 2. The State Treasurer is authorized and required to pay to John Gonter of Berks county, a gratuity of forty dollars immediately, in full for his revolutionary services; the foregoing pensions and gratuities to be paid in conformity to the existing laws.

SECTION 3. The State Treasurer is hereby authorized and required to pay to William Mullen of Montgomery county, a soldier of the revolutionary war, or to his order, eighty dollars immediately, as a gratuity, and an annuity of forty dollars during life, to be paid half yearly, to commence on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven; the foregoing pension and gratuity to be paid in conformity with the existing laws; and that so much of the act entitled "An act for the relief of George Dannenhöwer and others, soldiers and widows of soldiers of the revolutionary war," passed the first day of April, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, as granted a pension to William Mullen of Philadelphia county, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. The State Treasurer is hereby authorized and required to pay to Margaret Miller, a widow, and a daughter of Benjamin Sill of Montgomery county, a soldier of the revolutionary war, who had made application to the legislature for a pension at the present session, but has since deceased, the sum of forty dollars as a gratuity, in consideration of the services of the said Benjamin Sill.

LEWIS DEWART,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

THOMAS S. CUNNINGHAM,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The third day of March, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven.

JOS: RITNER.

—•••—
No. 27.

A Further Supplement

To the act entitled “An act for the regulation of the Militia of this Commonwealth.”

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the enrolled militia attached to the first and forty-fourth regiments, first and second brigades, sixth division, Pennsylvania militia, residing within the following bounds, shall hereafter compose a separate battalion, to be called the third battalion of the forty-fourth regiment, any thing in any former law to the contrary notwithstanding; that is to say: commencing at the Blue mountain at Deglar's Gap, thence a straight course to John Miller's mill, in upper Tulpehocken township, thence a straight course to a cross road on John Derr's land, thence along a public road leading to Jacob Seyfert's mill, in Heidleberg township along said road to said Seyfert's mill, thence along a public road leading to Reading, to a creek called Brunenkill, thence along said creek where it empties into Tulpehocken creek, thence a straight line to the nearest point to a public road leading from Heister's mill to Bern church, thence along said road to said church, thence along a public road to the farm of John Allwine, deceased, thence along a public road to Mr. Blatt's farm, including Samuel Mogel and Mr. Blatt, thence a straight course to the house formerly occupied by James Sillyman, Esquire, thence a straight line north to the Blue mountain, thence along said mountain to the place of beginning, and that said battalion be held in Bernville, Berks