

No. 2.

AN ACT

To provide for the erection of a House for the Employment and Support of the Poor in the county of Westmoreland.

SECTION 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Benjamin Byerly, Jehu Taylor, Christopher Cribbs, Robert Hitchman, Benjamin Stewart, Archibald Boyd, senior, Archibald B. Megrew, George R. Haymaker, John Reed, Wm. McLaughlin, senior, James Moorhead, Wm. T. Baldrige, Henry McBride, Jacob Kintz, James Horrell, John McGowan, Joseph Lloyd, and Christian Fox, be and are hereby appointed commissioners, whose duty it shall be, or a majority of them, on or before the first day of January, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and forty, to determine upon and purchase such real-estate as they shall deem necessary for the accommodation of the poor of Westmoreland county; and it shall be lawful for said commissioners, or a majority of them, to take conveyances therefor, in the name and for the use of the corporation mentioned in the third section of this act, and they shall certify their proceedings therein, under their hands and seals, to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of Westmoreland county, to be filed in his office; and, at the next general election, the qualified electors shall elect three reputable citizens of the said county, to be directors of the poor and of the house of employment for the county of Westmoreland; and the judges of the election of said county shall, immediately on receiving the returns from the several election districts, and casting up the number of votes therein, or within three days thereafter, certify, under their hands and seal, the names of the persons so elected directors, to the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the said county, who shall file the said certificate in his office, and forthwith give notice in writing to the said directors of their being elected. And the said directors shall meet at the courthouse in the said county, on the first Monday of November next ensuing their election, and divide themselves by lot into three classes: the place of the first to be vacated at the expiration of the first year; of the second, at the expiration of the second year; of the third, at the expiration of the third year; so that those who shall be chosen after the first election, and in the mode above described, may serve for three years; and one-third may be chosen annually thereafter.

SECTION 2 Every director elected in manner aforesaid, or appointed as is directed by the eleventh section of this act, shall, within ten days after he is notified of such election or appointment, and before he enters upon the duties of the said office, take an oath or affirmation, which any justice of the peace of the said county is hereby authorized to administer; that he will discharge the duties of the office of director of the poor for the said county truly, faithfully, and impartially, to the best of his knowledge and ability; and in case of neglect or refusal to take the said oath or affirmation within the time aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for the use of the poor of said county, which fine shall be recovered by the directors for the time being, as debts are or shall be by law recoverable.

Oath of directors

SECTION 3. The said directors shall, forever hereafter, in name and in fact, be one body politic and corporate in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, relative to the poor of the county of Westmoreland, and shall have perpetual succession, and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, by the name, style and title of the directors of the poor and of the house of employment for the county of Westmoreland; and by that name shall and may receive, take and hold any lands, tenements, and hereditaments, not exceeding the yearly value of ten thousand dollars, and any goods and chattels whatsoever of the gift, alienation or bequest of any person or persons whatsoever; to purchase, take and hold any lands and tenements within their county, in fee simple or otherwise, and erect suitable buildings for the reception, use and accommodation of the poor of said county; to provide all things necessary for the lodging, maintenance and employment of said poor; to appoint a treasurer annually, who shall give bond, with full and sufficient surety, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and, at the expiration thereof, for the payment and delivery over to his successor in office of all moneys, bonds, notes, book accounts, and other papers to the said corporation belonging, which shall then be remaining in his hands, custody, and possession; and said directors shall have power to employ, and at pleasure remove, a steward or stewards, matron or matrons, physician or physicians, surgeon or surgeons, and all other attendants that may be necessary for the said poor respectively; to bind out apprentices, so that such apprenticeship may expire, if males, at or before the age of twenty-one years, if females, at or before the age of eighteen years, such poor children as shall come under their notice, or as may now be bound apprentices by the overseers of the poor: Provided, That no child shall be

Inspection of books

SECTION 6. As soon as the said buildings shall have been erected or purchased, and all necessary accommodations provided therein, notices shall be sent, signed by any two of the said directors, to the overseers of the several townships of the said county of Westmoreland, requiring them forthwith to bring the poor of their respective townships to said house of employment, which order the overseers are hereby enjoined and required to comply with, or otherwise to forfeit the costs of all future maintenance, except in cases when, by sickness or any other sufficient cause, any poor person cannot be removed; in which case the said overseers shall present the same to the nearest justice of the peace, who, being satisfied of the truth thereof, shall certify the same to the said directors, and at the same time issue an order, under his hand and seal, to the said overseers, directing them to maintain such poor until such time as he or she may be in a situation to be removed, and then convey the said pauper and deliver him or her to the steward or keeper of the said house of employment, together with the said order; and the charge and expense of such temporary relief, and of such removal, shall be paid by the said directors at a reasonable allowance.

Removal of poor to house of employment

SECTION 7. The said directors shall, from time to time, receive, provide for, and employ, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, all such poor and indigent persons as shall be entitled to relief, or shall have gained a legal settlement in said county of Westmoreland, and shall be sent there by an order or warrant for that purpose, under the hands and seals of any two justices of the peace, directed to any constable of the said county of Westmoreland, or to the overseers of the proper township in any other county of this commonwealth; and the said directors are hereby authorized, when they shall deem it proper and convenient to do so, to permit any poor person or persons to be maintained elsewhere: Provided, The expense of their maintenance does not in any case exceed that for which they could be maintained at the poor house of the said county of Westmoreland.

SECTION 10. A quorum of said directors shall and they are hereby enjoined and required to meet at the said house of employment, at least once in every month, and visit the apartments, and see that the poor are comfortably supported, and hear all complaints, and redress, or cause to be redressed, all grievances that may happen by the neglect or misconduct of any person or persons in their employment or otherwise.

Pay of directors

SECTION 11. The said directors shall each of them receive for their services annually, the sum of twenty dollars, to defray the expenses of their necessary attendance on the duties of their office.

Of vacancies

SECTION 12. In case of any vacancy by death, resignation, or otherwise, of any of the said directors, the remaining directors shall fill such vacancy by the appointment of a citizen of their county, under the same penalty as is provided by the third section of this act, to serve until the next general election, when another director shall be elected to serve as if no such vacancy had happened.

SECTION 13. All claims and demands existing at the time of this act being carried into effect, shall have full force and effect, as if this act had not passed; and when the same may have been duly adjusted and settled, all moneys remaining in the hands of the overseers, as well as the uncollected taxes levied for the support of the poor in the several townships in the county of Westmoreland, shall be paid over to the supervisors of the highways of their respective townships, to be by them applied towards repairing the roads therein.

SECTION 14. As soon as the poor of the county of Westmoreland shall have been removed to the house of employment of the said county, and the outstanding taxes collected and paid over, the office of overseer of the poor within the said county shall from thenceforth be abolished.

Overseers office abolished

SECTION 15. The powers conferred and the duties imposed on the overseers of the poor, in and by an act to empower the overseers and guardians of the poor of the several townships within this commonwealth, to recover certain fines, penalties, and forfeitures, and for other purposes, are hereby conferred and imposed on the directors of the poor in the said county of Westmoreland; and that the justices of the peace and sheriff within the said county are hereby required and enjoined to pay to the said directors, to be by them applied to the maintenance of the poor of the county, the aforesaid fines, forfeitures, and penalties, within the time and in the manner prescribed by the said act for the payment thereof in other counties to the overseers of the poor, and to give notice of the receipt thereof to the said directors, within the time and in the manner aforesaid; and that, for any neglect or refusal to perform any of the duties enjoined on them by the said act, the said justices of the peace and sheriff in the said county shall be subject to all fines, penalties, and forfeitures, to which the justices and sheriffs in other counties by the said act are subject or liable.
