SECTION 6. If after thirty days notice in two of the public newspapers, printed in the county of Bedford, of the time and place appointed for the payment of any proportion or instalment of the capital stock, in order to carry on the work, any stockholder shall neglect to pay any such proportion or instalment, at the place appointed, for the space of thirty days after the time so appointed, every such stockholder, or his assignee shall, in addition to the instalments so called for, pay after the rate of two per centum per month for delay of such payment; and if the same, and the said additional penalty shall remain unpaid for such space of time, as that the accumulated penalties shall become equal to the sums before paid in part, and on account of such shares, the same shall be forfeited to said company, and may and shall be sold to any person or persons willing to purchase for such price as can be obtained for the same.

SECTION 7. The said president and managers shall meet at such times and places as shall be ordained by their by-laws, and when met, five members shall form a quorum, who, in the absence of the president may choose a chairman, and shall keep minutes of all their transactions fairly entered in a book, and a quorum being formed, they shall have full power and authority to appoint all such surveyors, engineers, superintendents, and other artists and officers as they shall deem necessary to carry on their intended works, and fix their salaries and wages, to ascertain the times when, and the manner and proportions in which the stockholders shall pay the moneys due on their respective shares, in order to carry on the work; to draw orders on the treasurer for moneys necessary to pay the salaries or wages of persons by them employed, and for labor done and materials provided in the prosecution of the work, which orders shall be entered on their book of minutes, and shall be signed by the president, or in his absence by a majority of the board, and countersigned by their secretary, and generally to do all such other acts, matters, and things, as by this act and the by-laws, rules, orders, and regulations of the company, shall be committed to them.

SECTION 8. It shall be lawful for the said president and managers to cause a road to be laid out forty feet wide, and at least sixteen feet thereof to be made an artificial road, bedded with wood, stone, gravel, or other hard substance well compacted together, and of sufficient depth to secure a solid foundation to the same, and the said road shall be faced with gravel, or stone pounded, or other small hard substance, in such manner as to secure a firm, and as nearly as the materials will admit, of an even surface rising towards the middle, by a gradual arch, and so nearly level in its progress, as that it shall in no place rise or fall more than will form an angle of four degrees with an horizontal line, and shall forever hereafter maintain and keep the same in good and perfect order and repair from the town of Bloody Run, thence by Loysburg, Woodbury, and Maria forges, to a point at or near the tavern of William Leamers, on the turnpike road leading from Hollidaysburg to Bedford.

SECTION 9. It shall be lawful to and for the said president and managers, by and with their superintendents, engineers, artists, workmen, and laborers, with their tools and instruments, carts, wagons, wains, and other carriages and beasts of draft or burden, to enter upon the lands in, over, contiguous, and near to which the route and track of the said intended road shall pass, first giving notice of their intention to the owners thereof, or their representatives, and doing as little damage thereto as possible, and repairing any breaches they may make in the enclosures thereof, and making amends for any damages that may be done to any improvements thereon, and also for the value of the materials, by appraisements to be made in the manner hereinafter directed, or upon reasonable agreement, if they can agree; if they cannot agree, then upon an appraisement to be made upon oath or affirmation, by three disinterested and reputable freeholders, to be chosen, whose award, or the award of any two of them, shall be final, and if either the said president and managers, or the said owners shall, upon due notice, neglect or refuse to join in the choice, then it shall and may be lawful for any justice of the peace of the county where the said damage may be done, not interested on either side, to appoint the said freeholders, and upon tender of the value so appraised, as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the said president and managers, or for any person or persons, by his or their directions, to dig, take, and carry away any stone, gravel, sand, or earth then being most conveniently situated for making or two horses, twelve cents; and for every such wagon with four horses, twenty cents; for every sleigh, three cents for each horse drawing the same; and for every sled, two cents for each horse drawing the same; for every cart or wagon whose wheels shall not exceed four inches, six and a quarter cents, for each horse drawing the same; and for every cart or wagon whose wheels shall exceed four inches, and not exceed seven inches, four cents for every horse drawing the same; for every cart or wagon, the breadth of whose wheels shall be more than seven inches, and not more than ten inches, and being of the breadth of seven inches, shall roll more than ten inches, three cents for each horse drawing the same; for every cart or wagon, the breadth of whose wheels shall be more than ten inches, and not exceeding twelve inches, or being ten inches, shall roll more than fifteen inches, two cents for every horse drawing the same; for every cart or wagon, the breadth of whose wheels shall be more than twelve inches, two cents for every horse drawing the same. Penalty for attempts to defraud

And if any person or persons shall represent to the said company, or any of their officers, that he, she, or they have travelled a less distance than he, she, or they have actually travelled along said road, with intent to defraud said company of its toll, or any part thereof, such person or persons shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay to the use of said company the sum of five dollars. Penalty for exacting greater tolls than authorized

And if any toll-gatherer shall demand and receive toll for a greater distance than the person of whom such toll is demanded shall have travelled along said turnpike road, or shall demand and receive greater toll from any person or persons than such toll-gatherer is authorized to demand and receive by virtue of this act, Forfeiture such toll-gatherers shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for every such offence, to the supervisors of the township in which the forfeiture is incurred, to be expended in repairing township roads, and for the payment of which, the said company shall be responsible. How expended

SECTION 12. All such carriages, as aforesaid, to be drawn by oxen in the whole, or partly by horses, and partly by two oxen, two oxen shall be estimated as equal to one horse, in charging all the aforesaid tolls; and every mule as equal to one horse. Carriages drawn by oxen, &c.]

SECTION 13. If the said company shall neglect to keep the said road in good and perfect order for the space of thirty days, and information thereof shall be given to any justice of the peace of the neighborhood within the county where the repair ought to be made, such justice shall issue a precept to be directed to any constable, commanding him to summon three disinterested persons to meet at a certain time, in said precept to be mentioned, at the place in said road which shall Neglect to keep road in repair Manner of proceeding against company
