SECTION 4. The said directors, as soon as may be after their election and organization as aforesaid, shall make an estimate of the probable expense of purchasing the lands and building, of erecting the necessary building or buildings and furnishing the same, and maintaining the poor within the said county for one year; whereupon, the county commissioners of the said county shall, and they are hereby authorized and required to increase the county tax, by one-fourth part of the sum necessary for the purpose aforesaid, and shall procure on loan, on the credit of the taxes herein directed to be levied, the remaining three-fourths thereof to be paid in instalments with interest, out of the county taxes: Provided always, That if such loan cannot be made, the whole amount of the sum necessary for the purpose aforesaid, or such part thereof as may be deemed proper, shall immediately be added to the county tax, to be paid by the county treasurer to the directors aforesaid, on orders drawn in their favor by the county commissioners, as the same may be found necessary.

SECTION 5. It shall be the duty of the said directors on or before the first day of November, in each and every year, to furnish the commissioners of said county with an estimate of the probable expense of the poor and poor house for one year; and it shall be the duty of said commissioners to assess, and cause to be collected the amount of said estimate, which shall be paid to said directors by the county treasurer, on warrants drawn in their favor by the county commissioners, as the same may be found necessary; and the said directors shall, at least once in every year, render an account of all moneys by them received and expended, to the auditors appointed to audit and settle the county accounts, subject to the same penalties, rules and regulations, as are by law directed respecting the accounts of the county commissioners; and shall, at least once, in every year, lay before the court of Quarter sessions and grand jury of said county, a list of the number, ages, and sex of the persons maintained and employed in the said house of employment, or supported or assisted by them elsewhere, and of the children by them bound out to apprenticeship as aforesaid, with the names of their masters or mistresses, and their trade, occupation or calling; and shall, at all times when thereunto required, submit to the inspection and free examination of such visitors as shall from time to time be appointed by the court of Quarter Sessions of the said county, all their books and accounts, together with the rents, interests and moneys payable and receivable by the said corporation, and also an account of all sales, purchases, donations, devises bequests, as shall have been made by or to them.

SECTION 6. As soon as the said buildings shall have been erected or purchased, and all necessary accommodations provided therein, notices shall be sent, signed by any two of the said directors, to the overseers of the several townships of the said county of Lehigh, requiring them forthwith to bring the poor of their respective townships to said house of employment, which order the overseers are hereby enjoined and required to comply with, or otherwise to forfeit the costs of all future maintenance, except in cases when by sickness or any other sufficient cause, any poor person cannot be removed, in which case the said overseers shall represent the same to the nearest justice of the peace, who being satisfied of the truth thereof, shall certify the same to the said directors, and at the same time issue an order, under his hand and seal, to the said overseers, directing them to maintain such poor until such time as he or she may be in a situation to be removed, and then to convey the said pauper and deliver him or her to the steward or keeper of the said house of employment, together with the said order, and the charge and expense of such temporary relief, and of such removal, shall be paid by the said directors at a reasonable allowance.

SECTION 7. The said directors shall from time to time receive, provide for and employ, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, all such poor and indigent persons as shall be entitled to relief, or shall have gained a legal settlement in said county of Lehigh, and shall be sent thereby, an order or warrant for that purpose, under the hands and seals of any two justices of the peace, directed to any constable of the said county of Lehigh, or to the overseers of the proper township in any other county of this commonwealth, and the said directors are hereby authorized, when they shall deem it proper and convenient to do so, to permit any poor person or persons to be maintained elsewhere: Provided, The expense of their maintenance does not in any case exceed that for which they could be maintained at the poor house of the said county of Lehigh.

SECTION 8. The said directors, or any two of them, who shall be a quorum in all cases to do business, shall have full
