SECTION 15. WHEREAS, The fifth section of the act of the sixth of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, authorizes the canal commissioners to assess damages in cases of injury done to private property by reason of the construction of the Pennsylvania canal, where the same passes through the private property of individuals, or where materials have been taken for such canal;

Canal commissioners to assess damages of Burke, Mattess and Burke & Son on Del. div. Pa. Canal

And whereas, It is represented to the legislature that by reason of the construction of the new dam, during the last summer, across the Lehigh, damage was done to private property of the several individuals hereinafter named, and the canal commissioners allege want of jurisdiction in consequence of the words "passing through" being only used in the said section of the act aforesaid—for remedy whereof; therefore,

That the canal commissioners be and they are hereby authorized to view and assess the damages sustained by Joseph Burke and Philip H. Mattess, in his own right or in trust, as the case may be, and also by Joseph Burke and son, by reason of the construction of the dam aforesaid, if the same was occasioned thereby, taking into consideration the advantages, if any derived by the said persons, severally, from the location and construction of the said canal, and to draw their warrant on the state treasurer in favor of the said parties for the sums respectively awarded them, to be paid out of the damage fund. Provided, That if the said canal commissioners shall not be satisfied that the damage done to said property was occasioned by the construction of the dam aforesaid, then no damages shall be awarded. And provided further, That the parties above named shall have the right of appeal to the board of appraisers, agreeably to the provisions of the sixth section of the act aforesaid, in the event of their being dissatisfied with the sum awarded by the canal commissioners.

Also of M. E. Church at Jersey Shore

SECTION 16. That the canal commissioners be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to inquire into the damage done to the building of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the town of Jersey Shore, in the county of Lycoming, by means of the construction of the West Branch canal; and if they find that the said building was injured or destroyed by reason thereof, and that there was no default or negligence on the part of the owners thereof, and that said damages have never been compensated, then to allow such sum therefor, as, taking all the circumstances into consideration, they and the advantages derived from the public works, they shall deem right and just, and draw their warrant for the same on the state treasurer, to be paid out of the damage fund.

Heirs of Chrs't Norrman to inherit estate of Ann Ottinger and legitimatized

SECTION 17. That the children and heirs of Christopher Norman, a natural child of Ann Ottinger, deceased, widow of Christian Ottinger, late of Montgomery county, deceased, shall be able and capable, in law, to inherit and transmit the estate of the said Ann Ottinger, deceased, and any other estate as fully and completely, to all intents and purposes, as if the said Christopher Norman had been born in lawful wedlock, and said children and heirs shall enjoy all the other rights, benefits and advantages of children whose ancestors were born in lawful wedlock.

SECTION 18. The collector of tolls on the Juniata Division of the Pennsylvania canal, at Huntingdon, be and he is hereby authorized and required to settle and adjust the debts yet remaining due and owing to individuals, on account of repairing the breach of eighteen hundred and thirty eight, in the said canal, between Huntingdon and Hollidaysburg, including the debts due on the check rolls of December, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, and January, eighteen hundred and thirty-nine, and all other debts due to individuals on account of said breach, contracted or created during the months aforesaid, and the secretary of the commonwealth is hereby authorized and directed to pay to the said collector the sums so adjusted by him, as they shall be required for the payment of the said claims, out of the money he was authorized to receive from the Girard Bank, by the fourth section of the act relating to the public improvements, passed the eleventh of June, eighteen hundred and forty, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to receive from the former disbursing officers on the Huntingdon breach, the amount of such balances as may remain in their hands unexpended, and pay the same into the state treasury to the credit of the damage fund.
