SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the "Act to incorporate the Pittsburg and Laughlinstown railroad company," passed on the third day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, be revived and extended and continue in force upon the same terms, conditions and limitations, from and after the passage of this act, as were contained in the original act, from and after the date of its passage: Provided however, That the amount to be paid on each share at the time of subscribing, be reduced from five dollars to two dollars and fifty cents: And provided also, That the commissioners named in the original act, or the survivors of them, have the same authority and power to act, and upon the same conditions and under the same limitations as those commissioners had under the original act.

SECTION 2. That the counties of Allegheny, Westmoreland and Somerset, and any city, borough or incorporated company shall have authority to subscribe thereto by their proper officer, as fully as any individual could do; and shall be represented at elections and in other acts of said company by agents duly appointed by the commissioners of the respective counties, or by the mayors, chief officers and the presidents of the said cities, boroughs and incorporated companies; all such subscriptions may be required in instalments as the company may think proper: Provided, That no more than Proviso one-third of the money subscribed shall be required in any one year.

HENDRICK B. WRIGHT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

B. CRISPIN,
Speaker of the Senate.
