

No. 254.

AN ACT

To authorize the auditor general to settle the accounts of Joseph K. Saeger, and to authorize John Foresman to institute a suit against Lycoming county.

Auditor general to settle the accounts of Joseph
K. Saeger, brigade inspector.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the auditor general be authorized and empowered to settle the accounts of the acting brigade inspector, Joseph K. Saeger, of the second brigade, seventh division, Pennsylvania militia, in all respects as if he had been regularly elected and commissioned brigade inspector for the said brigade: Provided, That this act shall not be construed so as to interfere with the just and legal claim, for services rendered by his predecessor, brigade inspector Strouss, previous to the appointment of said Joseph K. Saeger.

John Foresman authorized to institute suit against Lycoming county

SECTION 2. That it shall be lawful for John Foresman, of the county of Lycoming, or his heirs or assigns, to institute a suit or action at law, or otherwise, against the said county of Lycoming, and to recover of and from said county such sum or sums of money as shall be found to be equitably due to him, for extra work done by him for said county, in the erection and construction of a bridge over White Deer creek, in said county; any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, That no suit or action heretofore brought by the said John Foresman against the said county, shall be a bar to a recovery of any amount of money which shall be found equitably due to the said John Foresman, for the extra or additional work aforesaid.

WILLIAM F. PACKER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

GEORGE DARSIE,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

WM. F. JOHNSTON.
