

No. 295.

AN ACT

To appoint commissioners to re-locate a part of the Armstrong, Indiana and Cambria turnpike road, in the town of Elderton, Armstrong county; and relating to the state road leading from Brookville to Warren, in Warren county; and in relation to the opening of Broad street, in the county of Philadelphia.

Commissioners.
Quorum.

Mark out and re-locate part of the Armstrong, Indiana and Cambria turnpike road.

Proviso.

Supervisors of the township of Plum creek, in the county of Armstrong, duty of.

Commissioners of the highways in the townships of Cherry Grove and Mead, in the county of Warren, authorized to alter location of the state road.

Meaning of the fourth section of certain act.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That William Coulter, Thomas Armstrong and Joseph Lowery, be and are hereby appointed commissioners, a majority of whom shall be a quorum, who shall meet at a time to be agreed upon by them, as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, and shall proceed to mark out and re-locate, at its present width, so much of the Armstrong, Indiana and Cambria turnpike road as interferes with the extension of the main street of the town of Elderton, in the county of Armstrong, at the north end of said town: Provided, That the length of the part of the turnpike so re-located shall not exceed one hundred perches.

SECTION 2. The supervisors of the township of Plum Creek, in the county of Armstrong, shall immediately upon receiving notice from the commissioners aforesaid, of the said re-location and the boundaries thereof, open said road, grade it and keep it in repair, in like good order as they are now required to keep so much of said turnpike road as lies within said township.

SECTION 3. That the commissioners of highways in the townships of Cherry Grove and Mead, in the county of Warren, be and they are hereby authorized to alter the location of the state road leading from Brookville to the borough of Warren, or so much thereof as lies in the county of Warren; and that the commissioners of the township of Cherry Grove are authorized to levy and collect an additional tax of two per cent. for road purposes, for the term of five years.

SECTION 4. That the true intent and meaning of the fourth section of the act of the general assembly of Pennsylvania, passed on the fourteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, entitled "A further supplement to the act, entitled 'An Act to incorporate the township of Moyamensing, in Philadelphia county,'" is, and the same is hereby declared to be, that Broad street, in the county of Philadelphia, should be opened and widened to the breadth of one hundred and twenty feet southward, to low water mark on the ship channel of the river Delaware: Provided however, That the damages assessed and the expenses incurred in the opening and widening of said street, shall not be chargeable upon the county of Philadelphia.

WILLIAM F. PACKER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

GEORGE DARSIE,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

WM. F. JOHNSTON.
