No. 384.

AN ACT

Relative to the claim of Robert B. Wright.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Robert B. Wright, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, as collector of canal and railroad tolls at Columbia, credited the Washington line, a boat and car company, under the full assurance from their general credit with the business men, as well as from the collateral property assigned, that the company was unquestionably solvent:

And whereas, The said company became insolvent, by which means the said Robert B. Wright became indebted to the commonwealth in the sum of fifteen hundred and twenty-seven dollars and fourteen cents, for which sum he has confessed judgment in favor of the commonwealth; therefore,

Auditor general
and state treasurer
authorized to release Robert
B. Wright, of a certain judgment, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the auditor general and state treasurer be and they are hereby authorized and required to receive, in full payment of the judgment held by the commonwealth against Robert B. Wright, late collector of tolls, fifteen
