

writings, and do and perform all necessary matters and things whatsoever, in or about all his estate affairs and business in the United States of America, without exception of any sort, which he, the said constituent might, or could do or perform, if acting in his own person :

And whereas, The said power of attorney was duly signed, sealed, and delivered in the presence of subscribing witnesses, and verified by an acknowledgment before Henry Brown, who, in the certificate represents himself to be the Judge of Poona, in the Bombay Presidency, East Indies; and that he has in witness thereto, set his hand and the official seal of the said court to the said certificate, which seal attached contains on it the words, "Court of the Zilla of Poona."

And whereas, A question may arise whether the said acknowledgment is such as to entitle the said power of attorney to be entered upon record; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said power of attorney from Hamilton Beckett, dated the twenty-ninth day of May, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and authenticated and acknowledged as aforesaid, may be admitted to record in any one, or all of the offices for the recording of deeds, &c., within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and when so recorded, whether the same shall have been before, or shall be subsequent to the passage of this act, shall be equally operative and efficacious for all the purposes of the said power, as if the same had been duly acknowledged by the said Hamilton Beckett, before a Consul of the United States, or any other proper officer authenticated in the manner recognized by the acts of Assembly in such case made and provided, and was in every respect in conformity to the laws of this State.

Power of attorney from Hamilton Beckett to be admitted of record.

JOHN S. RHEY,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JOHN H. WALKER,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fourth day of February, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To an act entitled "An Act enabling the Governor to incorporate a company for making an artificial road from the State line, near the town of Emmetsburg, in the State of Maryland, through Waynesbroo', Greencastle, and Mercersburg, to intersect the Chambersburg and Bedford turnpike road at or near the east end of M'Connellsburg," approved January twenty-ninth, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall not hereafter be lawful for any person or persons to travel free.

of toll over the said Waynesboro', Greencastle, and Mercersburg turnpike road, when going to or from any place of public worship, except on the Sabbath day; any provision in the act incorporating said company to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 2. That the exemption contained in the first section of this act, and the eleventh section of the act to which this is a supplement, shall not be construed to embrace vehicles carrying or hauling passengers for pay or hire.

JOHN S. RHEY,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JOHN H. WALKER,

Speaker of the Senate.

We do certify that the bill entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An Act enabling the Governor to incorporate a company for making an artificial road from the State line near the town of Emmetsburg, in the State of Maryland, through Waynesboro', Greencastle, and Mercersburg, to intersect the Chambersburg and Bedford turnpike road at or near the east end of M'Connellsburg,' approved January twenty-ninth, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen," was presented to the Governor on the twenty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and was not returned within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it had been presented to him; wherefore it has, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution of this Commonwealth, become a law in like manner as if he had signed it.

WM. JACK,

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

JOHN M. SULLIVAN,

Clerk of the Senate.
