

of toll over the said Waynesboro', Greencastle, and Mercersburg turnpike road, when going to or from any place of public worship, except on the Sabbath day; any provision in the act incorporating said company to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 2. That the exemption contained in the first section of this act, and the eleventh section of the act to which this is a supplement, shall not be construed to embrace vehicles carrying or hauling passengers for pay or hire.

JOHN S. RHEY,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JOHN H. WALKER,

Speaker of the Senate.

We do certify that the bill entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An Act enabling the Governor to incorporate a company for making an artificial road from the State line near the town of Emmetsburg, in the State of Maryland, through Waynesboro', Greencastle, and Mercersburg, to intersect the Chambersburg and Bedford turnpike road at or near the east end of M'Connellsburg,' approved January twenty-ninth, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen," was presented to the Governor on the twenty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and was not returned within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it had been presented to him; wherefore it has, agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution of this Commonwealth, become a law in like manner as if he had signed it.

WM. JACK,

Clerk of the House of Representatives.

JOHN M. SULLIVAN,

Clerk of the Senate.

No. 34.

AN ACT

To alter and amend the charter of incorporation of "The St. John's Orphan Asylum," and relating to elections in Richmond township, Tioga county, and authorizing the commissioners of the district of Moyamensing to borrow money.

WHEREAS, On the sixteenth day of January, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, a charter of incorporation, under the great seal of the State, was granted to "The St. John's Orphan Asylum:"

And whereas, By an act of the General Assembly, passed the eighth day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, entitled "An Act for the relief of the St. John's Orphan Asylum, in the city of Philadelphia," the house and lot then owned by the said the St. John's Orphan Asylum, on Chestnut street, in the city of Philadelphia, was exempted from taxation so long as they should continue to be the property of that charitable institution, and used for an asylum as aforesaid, and no longer :

And whereas, The said corporation have recently sold said premises so exempted, and purchased other ground in the district of West Philadelphia, upon which they have erected, and are now having finished, a building, to be occupied and used as the St. John's Orphan Asylum :

And whereas, By an act of the General Assembly, passed the twenty-second day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, entitled "An Act to enable the St. John's Orphan Asylum to hold real estate," the said charter was altered, amended, and confirmed :

And whereas, It is deemed necessary further to alter and amend the said charter so that certain by-laws, rules, and regulations of the said the St. John's Orphan Asylum, may be lawfully made by the said corporation, as they from time to time shall be found expedient ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said corporation shall have power from time to time to make by-laws, rules, and regulations, relative to the addition and admission of corporators and members, the election duties, times of service, and number of managers and their successors, and the appointment of suitable officers, excepting the president, who shall be the Roman Catholic bishop of Philadelphia, or other ecclesiastical superior exercising Episcopal jurisdiction, for the time being, in the diocese of Philadelphia. Powers.

SECTION 2. That the provisions of the said act of the eighth day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, exempting the said house and lot on Chestnut street, lately owned by the said the St. John's Orphan Asylum, from taxation, be, and the same are hereby re-enacted, so as to extend to and exempt, in like manner, from taxation, the present property of the said corporation, so long as the same shall be used for any asylum as aforesaid, and no longer. Present property exempted from taxation.

SECTION 3. That no misnomer of said corporation shall defeat or annul any gift, grant, conveyance, devise, or bequest thereto : Provided, That the intent shall sufficiently appear therein. Misnomer.

SECTION 4. That the said charter and the act of Assembly last above recited, entitled "An Act to enable the St. John's Orphan Asylum to hold real estate," so far as they conflict or are inconsistent with this act, be, and the same are hereby altered and repealed, but in all other respects confirmed. Repeal.

SECTION 5. That from and after the passage of this act, the qualified electors of the township of Richmond shall hold their general and township elections at the house of Oliver H. Phelps, in said township, in the county of Tioga. Richmond township, Tioga county, place of holding elections.

SECTION 6. That "the commissioners and inhabitants of the district of Moyamensing, in the county of Philadelphia," be, and they are hereby authorized and invested with full power to borrow, upon the faith of the said corporation, the sum of thirty thousand dollars, to enable them to pay certain temporary loans and other debts now due by said corporation. Commissioners and inhabitants of Moyamensing authorized to borrow money, to pay debts of corporation.

Time of redemption and rate per cent. to be fixed by Board of commissioners.

SECTION 7. That the time at which said loan of thirty thousand shall be redeemable, and the rate per cent. to be paid for the loan of the same, provided always, that the same shall not exceed six per cent. per annum, shall be regulated and determined by a majority of the board of commissioners of said district: Provided, That no certificate of loan shall be issued of a less denomination than one hundred dollars.

JOHN S. RHEY,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JOHN H. WALKER,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fourth day of February, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.
