

The assessors shall also revise assessments and valuations between the triennial assessments by increasing or decreasing the same where the value of the property or subjects of taxation assessed or valued has changed by reason of any change of conditions thereon or adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof, or for the reason that the property assessed or valued has been subdivided or laid out into a plan of lots or other subdivision, or for the reason that improvements have been placed thereon or added thereto, or for the reason that any public or other improvement has been made adjacent thereto or in the vicinity thereof, or where for any other reason whatsoever the value of the property has changed and it seems to the board necessary and equitable to make a change in the valuation thereof. The assessors shall also, between the triennial assessments, in all cases where it is apparent that any assessment is not in accord with the generality or uniform standard of assessments, revise and correct the same by increasing or decreasing the same where the value of the property or subjects of taxation assessed do not conform to the generality or uniform standard of assessments: Provided, however, That, if such revision or correction of such assessment shall increase the amount thereof, the owner of such subjects of taxation whose assessment has been so increased between the triennial assessments shall be given at least ten days written notice of such revision or correction, and have the right of appeal to the court of common pleas in the same manner as provided in section ten of the act to which this act is an amendment.

Provide.

Return.

All assessments required to be made by the subordinate assessors in the years between the triennial assessment shall be returned to the board for the assessment and revision of taxes not later than the first Monday of November of the year preceding the one for which it is made.

APPROVED—The 26th day of April, A. D. 1921.

WM. C. SPROUL.

No. 156.

AN ACT

To amend an act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and twelve), entitled "An act providing a system of government for boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs."

Boroughs.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section twelve, article eighteen, chapter six, of the act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and twelve), entitled "An act providing a system of government for boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," which reads as follows:—

"Section 12. In letting contracts for the erection of any public buildings, when plans and specifications for the same shall be submitted for bids, the same shall be accompanied by a list of quantities of material required for such building, to be prepared and furnished by the architect or engineer preparing the plans, which bill or list shall be attached to the specifications. No such list of materials shall be taken as being guaranteed by the borough submitting such plans and specifications," is hereby amended to read as follows:—

Section 12. In letting contracts for the erection, construction, improvement, or repair of any public buildings and public works, when plans and specifications for the same shall be submitted for bids, the same shall be accompanied by a list of quantities of material required for such erection, construction, improvement, or repair, to be prepared and furnished by the architect or engineer preparing the plans, which bill or list shall be attached to the specifications. No list of materials shall be taken as being guaranteed by the borough submitting such plans and specifications.

Section 12, article 18, chapter 6, act of May 14, 1915 (P. L. 312), cited for amendment.

Public buildings and works. ~

Letting of contracts.

APPROVED—The 26th day of April, A. D. 1921.

WM. C. SPROUL.