

No. 220.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act, approved the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred twenty-seven), entitled "An act to prohibit the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine, butterine, and other similar products, when colored in imitation of yellow butter; to provide for license fees to be paid by manufacturers, wholesale and retail dealers, and by proprietors of hotels, restaurants, dining rooms, and boarding houses; for the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine, butterine, or other similar products, not colored in imitation of yellow butter; and to regulate the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine, butterine, or other similar products, not colored in imitation of yellow butter, and prevent and punish fraud and deception in such manufacture and sale as an imitation butter; and to prescribe penalties and punishment for violations of this act, and the means and the method of procedure for its enforcement, and regulate certain matters of evidence in such procedure," by regulating advertisements and designations relating to oleomargarine or butterine; prohibiting the use of certain word in or in connection with such advertisements; and providing penalties.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That it shall be unlawful for a person, copartnership, association, or corporation, or for any agent, servant, or employe of such person, or for any member, agent, servant, or employe of any such copartnership or association, or for any officer, director, agent, servant, or employe of any such corporation, to advertise, for any purpose whatsoever, in any newspaper, periodical, or magazine, or upon any handbill, or sign, or upon any billboard or by signs or otherwise in or upon or in connection with any premises, or to advertise or designate upon any package, carton, tub, or other container, any substance, article, product, or compound, made wholly or partly out of any fats, oils, or oleaginous substances, or compound thereof, designated under the laws of the Commonwealth as oleomargarine or butterine, unless such advertisement or designation shall distinctly and clearly set forth the character of such substance, article, product, or compound by the use of the word oleomargarine or the word butterine; and it shall be unlawful to use, in any such advertisement or designation on or in connection therewith, the word "butter" or any word such as "Holstein," "Jersey," or "Guernsey," or any other word which is commonly used as designating a known breed of cows.

Section 2. Every person, copartnership, association, or corporation, and every officer, member, agent, and employe of such person, copartnership, association, or corporation, violating any of the provisions of this act, shall, for every such offense, be subject to the penalties provided for in the act to which this is a supplement.

Oleomargarine and butterine.

Advertisements must designate as such.

Use of certain words prohibited

Violations.

Penalty.

APPROVED—The 10th day of May, A. D. 1921.

WM. C. SPROUL.