AN ACT

To amend sections four and seven of an act, approved the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred and nine), entitled "An act prescribing the powers and duties of the Bureau of Markets in the Department of Agriculture; providing for cooperation with the Bureau of Standards of the Department of Internal Affairs to establish standard receptacles for farm products, and to promulgate regulations for enforcement thereof; and prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act," by striking out certain provisions limiting the investigation and classification of farm products, and appropriating to the Department of Agriculture for the use of the Bureau of Markets, all fees and other moneys collected under this act.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section four of the act, approved the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred and nine), entitled "An act prescribing the powers and duties of the Bureau of Markets in the Department of Agriculture; providing for cooperation with the Bureau of Standards of the Department of Internal Affairs to establish standard receptacles for farm products, and to promulgate regulations for enforcement thereof; and prescribing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act," which reads as follows:—

"Section 4. The director may designate any competent employe or agent of the Bureau of Markets, and, upon satisfactory evidence of competency, may license any other person to make, upon request, investigations and classifications of farm products in accordance with standards which have become effective under this act. When any such investigation and classification is made, the employe or agent shall issue a certificate of the grade or other classification of the farm product involved.

"The director is authorized to fix, assess, and collect, or cause to be collected, fees for such services when they are performed by employes or agents of the Bureau of Markets. Licensed agents may charge and collect as compensation for such services only such fees as may be approved by the director.

"The director may suspend or revoke any license whenever, after opportunity for a hearing has been afforded to the licensee, the directors shall determine that such licensee is incompetent, or has knowingly or carelessly failed to classify any farm products correctly in accordance with such standards, or has violated any provision of this act or of the regulations made hereunder. Pending investigation the director may suspend a license temporarily without a hearing," is amended hereby to read as follows:—

Section 4. The director may designate any competent employe or agent of the Bureau of Markets, and, upon satisfactory evidence of competency, may license any other person to make, upon request, investigations and classifications of farm products. When any such investigation and classification is made, the employe or agent shall issue a certificate of the grade or other classification of the farm product involved.
