AN ACT

To amend an act, approved the eighth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred sixty-four), entitled "An act authorizing suits brought to recover in case of accidents in this Commonwealth in courts of common pleas to be certified to the Workmen's Compensation Board when discovered that the suit has been brought wrongfully"; extending the provisions of said act to suits brought after the passage of said act and prior to the passage of this amendment.

Practice.
Workmen's Compensation Board.

Act of July 8,
1919 (P. L. 764),
amended.

Section 1, cited
for amendment.

Actions heretofore
brought in common pleas.

May be certified to Workmen's Compensation Board.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section one of the act, approved the eighth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred sixty-four), entitled "An act authorizing suits brought to recover in case of accidents in this Commonwealth in courts of common pleas to be certified to the Workmen's Compensation Board when discovered that the suit has been brought wrongfully," which reads as follows:—

"Section 1. Be it enacted &c., That whenever heretofore in case of any accident, suit has been wrongfully brought in the court of common pleas in any of the counties of this Commonwealth, and proceedings should have been commenced before the Workmen's Compensation Board, it shall be lawful and upon request of either of the parties to the suit the prothonotary of the said court shall certify the same, including all the proceedings had before said court, to the said Workmen's Compensation Board; the said board to proceed and hear the case in the same manner as if it had been originally commenced before the Workmen's Compensation Board," is hereby amended to read as follows:—

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That whenever, before the passage of this amendment, in case of any accident, suit has been wrongfully brought in the court of common pleas in any of the counties of this Commonwealth, and proceedings should have been commenced before the Workmen's Compensation Board, it shall be lawful and upon request of either of the parties to the suit the prothonotary of the said court shall certify the same, including all the proceedings had before said court, to the said Workmen's Compensation Board; the said board to proceed and hear the case in the same manner as if it had been originally commenced before the Workmen's Compensation Board.

Section 2. That section two of said act, which reads as follows:—

“Section 2. That no case heretofore brought before any court shall be certified as set forth in section one of this act unless the said proceeding had been commenced in the said court within one year from the date of the accident which caused the injury or death for which the action was brought,” is hereby amended to read as follows:—

Section 2, cited for amendment.

Section 2. That no case brought, before the passage of this amendment, before any court shall be certified as set forth in section one of this act unless the said proceeding had been commenced in the said court within one year from the date of the accident which caused the injury or death for which the action was brought.

Limitation.
