AN ACT

Declaring the directors of the poor in poor districts coextensive with a county to be county officers.

Whereas, There are poor districts coextensive with counties, whose affairs have been administered, by directors of the poor elected by the qualified voters of the county under special acts of Assembly, as quasi municipal corporations, whose property and maintenance have been provided for out of the public treasury of the county, and maintained at the public expense; therefor,

Poor districts
coextensive with counties.

Directors to be county officers.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the directors of the poor of such poor district, coextensive with the county, are hereby declared to be county officers and subject, in the discharge of their duties and obligations as directors of the poor, to all the general laws relating to county officers.

Repeal.

Section 2. All acts of Assembly, general, local, or special, relating to the office of directors of the poor, inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

APPROVED—The 30th day of March, A. D. 1921.

AN ACT

Validating certain elections of counties, cities, boroughs, townships, school districts, and other incorporated districts, held pursuant to the provisions of an act, approved the twentieth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws, sixty-five), entitled "An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities, to provide for the redemption of the same, and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof," and the amendments thereto; and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance of such elections.

Municipalities.

Elections to increase indebtedness.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That all elections heretofore held by any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district within this Commonwealth, to increase its indebtedness under the provisions of an act, entitled "An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities, to provide for the redemption of the same, and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof," approved the twentieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws, sixty-five), and under the acts amendatory thereof, where the majority of votes cast at such election was in favor of the increase of indebtedness, be, and the same are hereby ratified, confirmed, and made valid, notwithstanding the fact that the authorities of such county, city, borough, township, school district, or incorporated district failed to cause the minutes of the corporate body authorizing such an increase of indebtedness and election to be recorded in a proper manner, or the fact that there is a discrepancy between the date fixed in such minutes for the first publication of the notice of such election and the actual date of the first publication of such notice of election, or the fact that was fixed in said minutes an improper arbitrary date when said bonds authorized should be issued; and notwithstanding any defect or informality in the manner in which such minutes were recorded or in the giving notice of such election. All bonds issued or to be issued in pursuance of every such election are hereby made valid binding obligations of every such county, city, borough, township, school district, or incorporated district, provided all the other requirements of the law concerning such election and issue of bonds have been complied with.
