AN ACT

To amend the act, approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, seventy-three), entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred and seventy-five), entitled 'An act to provide that admission now had or that may hereafter be had to practice as an attorney-at-law in the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth shall of itself, without more, operate as an admission of such attorney as an attorney-at-law in every other court of this Commonwealth; and to provide that disbarment or suspension of any attorney by the said Supreme Court shall of itself, without more, operate as a disbarment or suspension of such attorney as an attorney in every other court of this Commonwealth,' requiring attorneys-at-law to file certificates of admission in the Supreme Court before admission in other courts, and fixing the fees of the prothonotaries of the Supreme and other courts, in connection therewith"; providing for the filing of such certificates of admission with clerks of courts, and fixing their fees.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section one of the act, approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, seventy-three), entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred and seventy-five), entitled 'An act to provide that admission now had or that may hereafter be had to practice as an attorney-at-law in the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth shall of itself, without more, operate as an admission of such attorney as an attorney-at-law in every other court of this Commonwealth; and to provide that disbarment or suspension of any attorney by the said Supreme Court shall of itself, without more, operate as a disbarment or suspension of such attorney as an attorney in every other court of this Commonwealth,' requiring attorneys-at-law to file certificates of admission in the Supreme Court before admission in other courts, and fixing the fees of the prothonotaries of the Supreme and other courts, in connection therewith," which reads as follows:—

"Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That admission now had or that may hereafter be had to practice as an attorney-at-law in the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth shall qualify such attorney for admission to practice as an attorney-at-law in every other court of this Commonwealth, and shall operate as an admission of such attorney in any other court of this Commonwealth upon his filing in the office of the prothonotary of said court a certificate of admission in the Supreme Court and the payment to such prothonotary of a fee of one dollar. Such certificate shall be granted by the prothonotary of the Supreme Court upon application and the payment of a fee of one dol-
