AN ACT

To amend section one of an act, approved the seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six (Pamphlet Laws, twenty-nine), entitled "An act relating to appeals in cases of summary convictions," as amended.

Appeals from summary convictions and suits for penalties.

Section 1, act of April 17, 1876 (P. L. 29), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section one of an act, approved the seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six (Pamphlet Laws, twenty-nine), entitled "An act relating to appeals in cases of summary convictions," which was amended by an act, approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and seventy-one), entitled "An act to amend an act, approved the seventeenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, entitled 'An act relating to appeals in cases of summary convictions,'" is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Appeal in summary convictions.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in all cases of summary conviction in this Commonwealth, before a magistrate or court not of record, either party, even though any fine imposed has already been paid, may, within five days after such conviction, appeal to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which such magistrate shall reside or court not of record shall be held, upon allowance of the said court of quarter sessions, or any judge thereof, upon cause shown; and either party may also appeal from the judgment of a magistrate or a court not of record, in a suit for a penalty, to the court of common pleas of the county in which said judgment shall be rendered, upon allowance of said court, or any judge thereof, upon cause shown: Provided, That pending the taking of an appeal by either party, or the allowance or refusal thereof by the court or judge, the fine, or penalty, and costs imposed by the magistrate, or court not of record, need not be paid if bail is entered with one or more sufficient sureties in double the amount of such fine, or penalty, and costs for the payment thereof, on the refusal of such
