

complete workings of each seam, as provided for in this article. The copies of the maps of the several mines, as hereinbefore required to be furnished to the inspector, shall remain in the care of the inspector of the district in which said mines are situated, as official records pertaining strictly to the office of said inspector, to be transferred by him to his successor in office, and in no case shall any copy thereof be made or any information therefrom be given to any person without the consent of the operator, except as provided for in section two of this article: Provided further, That when one mine is working a seam of coal under another mine that is working an overlying seam, and the two mines are operated by different operators, such operators shall exchange with each other copies of their respective mine maps, showing such portions of their respective mines as may be directly above or below the other mine.

Maps to be official records.

Information from maps not to be given.

Proviso.

APPROVED—The 7th day of April, A. D. 1925.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

No. 127.

AN ACT

Amending clause forty-six of section three of article five of an act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred sixty-eight), entitled "An act providing for the incorporation, regulation, and government of cities of the third class; regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein; and repealing, consolidating, and extending existing laws in relation thereto," as amended, so as to provide that the cities of said class shall have the right to exercise the powers and authority of local self-government in all municipal affairs.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That clause forty-six of section three of article five of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred sixty-eight), entitled "An act providing for the incorporation, regulation, and government of cities of the third class; regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein; and repealing, consolidating, and extending existing laws in relation thereto," which was amended by the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred ten), entitled "An act to amend and revise an act, entitled 'An act providing for the incorporation, regulation, and government of cities of the third class; regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein; and repealing, consolidating, and extending existing laws in relation thereto,' approved the twenty-seventh day of June, Anno Cities of the third class.

Elections.

Clause 46, section 3, article V of act of June 27, 1913 (P. L. 568), further amended.

Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, enlarging, changing, modifying, and defining certain of the powers of cities of the third class," is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Increased power
for self-government.

Proviso.

46. That in addition to the powers and authority vested in each city of the third class by the provisions of the foregoing clauses of this section, each of the said cities shall have power and authority to make all such ordinances, by-laws, rules, and regulations, not inconsistent with or restrained by the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth, as may be expedient or necessary for the proper management, care, and control of the city and its finances, and the maintenance of the peace, good government, safety, and welfare of the city, and its trade, commerce, and manufactures; and also all such ordinances, by-laws, rules, and regulations as may be necessary in and to the exercise of [full and complete] the powers and authority of [for] local self-government in [matters of police] all municipal affairs: Provided, however, That no ordinance, by-law, rule, or regulation shall be made or passed which contravenes or violates any of the provisions of the Constitution of the United States or of this Commonwealth or of any act of assembly heretofore, or that may be hereafter passed in force in said city; and the [same] said ordinance, by-laws, rules, and regulations to alter, modify, and repeal at pleasure; and to enforce all ordinances [by] inflicting penalties upon inhabitants or other persons for violations thereof, not exceeding [one] three hundred dollars for any one offense, recoverable with costs, together with judgment [or] of imprisonment, not exceeding ninety days, if the amount of said judgment and costs shall not be paid.

APPROVED—The 7th day of April, A. D. 1925.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.