No. 190.

AN ACT

To further amend section one of the act, approved the seventeenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand three), entitled "An act requiring licenses to sell steamship tickets or orders for transportation to and from foreign countries, and providing penalties," further extending the parties to whom said act shall not apply.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section one of the act, approved the seventeenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand three), entitled "An act requiring licenses to sell steamship tickets or orders for transportation to and from foreign countries and providing penalties," which was amended by section one of the act, approved the twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred ninety-seven), entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the seventeenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, ten hundred and three), entitled 'An act requiring licenses to sell steamship tickets or orders for transportation to or from foreign countries, and providing penalties,'" is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Department of Banking.
License for sale of steamship tickets.

Section 1 of act of July 17, 1919 (P. L. 1003), further amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That no person, co-partnership, association, or corporation, other than railroad or steamship companies, shall hereafter engage within this State in the sale of steamship tickets or orders for transportation, or shall advertise or hold themselves out as authorized or entitled to sell such steamship tickets or orders for transportation, or shall receive deposits of money on account of the sale of steamship tickets, without being a citizen of the United States and having first procured from the Commissioner of Banking a license to carry on such business. Such license shall be granted, upon application to the Commissioner of Banking designating the place where the business for which a license is sought

Proof of fitness.	The application shall be accompanied by such satisfactory proof of good moral character and fitness to conduct such business properly and any other information required by the Commissioner of Banking. The application shall also be accompanied by a list of the steamship lines for which the applicant is authorized agent, which list shall not contain less than three such lines. Such license shall be granted upon approval of the application by the Commissioner of Banking and the payment to said commissioner, for the use of the Banking Department, of a fee of fifty dollars, and shall be renewed on payment of a like fee annually, unless revoked for cause by the Commissioner of Banking. Every license shall contain the name of the licensee, the city, street, and number of the house in which the licensee is authorized to carry on business, and the number and date of such license. Such license shall not be transferred or assigned, nor authorize the licensee or his agents to transact business or to advertise or hold himself or themselves out as authorized and entitled to transact such business at any place other than that designated in the license. The license shall run to the first day of July next following the date thereof and no longer, unless sooner revoked by the Commissioner of Banking: Provided, however, That the issuance of such license shall not thereby impose on such licensee the necessity of obtaining any further license from the Commissioner of Banking or the board created by act, approved the nineteenth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven, entitled "An act to provide for licensing and regulating private banking in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and providing penalties for the violation thereof," for the conduct of any business in conjunction with the sale of steamship tickets or orders for transportation, where by existing law such business as now conducted is not required to be licensed by the Commissioner of Banking or said board: And provided further, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to any duly incorporated national bank, State bank, or trust company, or to express companies organized and existing under the laws of other states lawfully doing business within the State of Pennsylvania.
