

Proclamation of the Governor

In the Name and by Authority of the COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Governor's Office, Harrisburg.

I, Gifford Pinchot, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, have caused this Proclamation to issue, and in compliance with the provisions of article four, section fifteen of the Constitution thereof, do hereby give notice, that I have filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, with my objections thereto, the following bills, passed by both houses of the General Assembly, viz:

Senate bill No. 46, entitled "An Act to further amend section fifteen of the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred nineteen) entitled 'An act regulating certain political parties providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions and of certain party offices including State committeemen a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States and the payment by the several counties and their reimbursement by the State committee of a political party to make and to alter amend and revoke rules and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein and repealing inconsistent legislation' by requiring the court of common pleas to open ballot boxes when fraud or error not manifest on the general return is alleged and providing for the deposit of cash or the filing of a bond by the petitioners."

Senate bill No. 53, entitled "A Joint Resolution creating an Election Law Commission to codify and revise the election and primary election laws defining its powers and duties and making an appropriation."

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the City of Harrisburg, the seventeenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and forty-ninth.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

By the Governor:

CLYDE L. KING,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.
