 No. 239

AN ACT

Regulating the hours of labor of policemen in cities of the third class.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That it shall be unlawful for any city of the third class to employ, or to require, any police officer, to remain on duty for more than eight hours in any twenty-four consecutive hours, or more than fifty-six hours in any one week, unless in emergency cases for the suppression of riots or tumults or the preservation of the public peace. Nothing contained herein shall, however, prevent any such city from requiring any such police officer to remain on duty, or to work, sixteen hours, in any twenty-four consecutive hours, not more than one day each week, if required by a change in working hours or a change in shifts.

Cities of third class.

Hours of labor of policemen.

Section 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Repeal.

APPROVED—The 23d day of April, A. D. 1927.
