

No. 3

AN ACT

Validating, ratifying, and confirming all bonds, certificates of indebtedness, securities, and obligations, issued or to be issued, by any city of the first class, for money borrowed for any public exposition celebrating the Sesqui-Centennial anniversary, for permanent or temporary purposes, but only directly in connection with the Sesqui-Centennial Anniversary, and for no other purposes; and the debt of such cities so incurred pursuant to certain notices given, ordinances passed, certificates delivered, proceedings and elections of such cities had and held, in accordance with the provisions of an act, approved the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, fifty), entitled "An act authorizing cities of the first class to provide for the use of moneys borrowed, or authorized to be borrowed, for purposes which have proved or may prove impracticable, impossible or inadvisable, for any lawful municipal purpose, or to provide for the cancellation of the authority to borrow such moneys;" and further validating, ratifying, and confirming all of said notices, ordinances, certificates, proceedings and elections.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That any and all bonds, certificates of indebtedness, securities, and obligations, issued or to be issued, by any city of the first class, for money borrowed for any public exposition celebrating the Sesqui-Centennial anniversary, for permanent or temporary purposes, but only directly in connection with the Sesqui-Centennial anniversary, and for no other purpose, and the debt of such cities so incurred pursuant to certain notices given, ordinances passed, certificates delivered, proceedings and elections of such cities had and held, in accordance with the provisions of an act, approved the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, fifty), entitled "An act authorizing cities of the first class to provide for the use of moneys borrowed, or authorized to be borrowed, for purposes which have proved or may prove impracticable, impossible or inadvisable, for any lawful municipal purpose, or to provide for the cancellation of the authority to borrow such moneys," be, and the same are hereby, validated, ratified, and confirmed, and made valid and binding obligations of every such city of the first class in all cases where the majority of the votes cast at any such election was in favor of the said change of purpose; and all of said notices, ordinances, certificates, proceedings, and elections, heretofore given, delivered, had or held, as aforesaid by any such city in order to provide for the change of purpose, as above recited and set forth, for which moneys borrowed, or authorized to be borrowed, might be used under the provisions of the said act of Assembly, approved the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, fifty), be, and the same are, also validated, ratified, and confirmed, notwithstanding that any certificate of the city controller, or any notice

Cities of first class.

Sesqui-Centennial obligations.

Validation.

Notices, elections, etc.

Validation.

given by advertisement required by law, or any proceeding connected therewith, may have been wanting or defective in form or substance, and notwithstanding any and all other defects, omissions, and informalities in such notices, ordinances, certificates, proceedings, or elections, whether of the same general kind as those above enumerated or of any other kind, character, or description whatsoever.

APPROVED—The 2d day of March, A. D. 1927.

JOHN S. FISHER

No. 4

AN ACT

Authorizing the board of trustees of Allentown State Hospital to convey certain parts of a tract of land acquired in the name of the Commonwealth as a site for the Homeopathic State Hospital for the Insane, and to acquire additional tracts of land in exchange therefor.

Allentown State Hospital.

Preamble.

Whereas, The commission created by authority of the act of July eighteen, one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred thirty-seven), for the selection of a site and the erection of a Homeopathic State Hospital for the Insane has purchased, for and in the name of the Commonwealth, certain land as a site for said hospital in the city of Allentown, Lehigh County; and

Whereas, The said commission, in accordance with the terms and provisions of the act of May ten, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred and five), section seven, did, on or about the twelfth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twelve, surrender their trust to the said board of trustees of Homeopathic State Hospital for the Insane, Allentown, the successor to said board under the terms and provisions of the Administrative Code of June seven, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, being the board of trustees of Allentown State Hospital; and

Whereas, The said board of trustees of Allentown State Hospital is desirous of acquiring for the Commonwealth, for the uses and purposes of said hospital, certain other lands from the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, and has to give in exchange therefor a small part of the land already acquired as a site for said hospital, the sale or exchange of which will not impair the usefulness of the balance thereof; and

Whereas, The Central Railroad Company of New Jersey is desirous of acquiring from the board of