

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

In the Name and by Authority of the COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

A PROCLAMATION

I, JOHN S. FISHER, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, have caused this proclamation to issue, and in compliance with the provisions of article four, section fifteen of the Constitution thereof, do hereby give notice that I have filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, with my objections thereto, the following bills passed by both Houses of the General Assembly, viz:

House bill No. 341, entitled "An act to repeal an act, approved the fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy nine (Pamphlet Laws, ninety-seven), entitled 'An act for the assessment and collection, in cities of the third class, of the cost of grading, paving, curbing, or otherwise improving streets heretofore improved and running in whole or part through rural districts.'"

House bill No. 1903, entitled "An act providing for the division of certain wards in cities of the first class by the court of quarter sessions."

Senate bill No. 127, entitled "An act classifying patrolmen, firemen, and fire alarm operators in second class cities; for the payment of salaries or compensation; providing an election to ascertain the will of the electors as to the minimum salaries or compensation for such employes and fixing the minimum salaries or compensation of such employes if the electors vote in favor of the same."

House bill No. 1055, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred and ninety-two), entitled 'An act fixing the salaries and providing for the expenses of county solicitors in counties of this Commonwealth over one hundred and fifty thousand population and less than two hundred and fifty thousand population increasing the salary of the county solicitor.'

Senate bill No. 108, entitled "An act to amend section eight of an act approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, eleven hundred and twenty-three), entitled 'An act establishing in each county a board of viewers; prescribing their duties; providing for their appointment as viewers, road juries, juries of view, and commissioners to view land; and providing for the charges upon the respective counties in the matter of salaries, costs, and expenses thereof'; authorizing boards of viewers in counties of the fourth class to employ and fix the compensation of stenographers; and providing for the payment by the county of such compensation."

Senate bill No. 284, entitled "An act to amend subdivision three of section three of an act, approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws, seventy-three), entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations,' by regulating the weekly advertisements for corporate charters."

Senate bill No. 356, entitled "An act regulating the location of cemeteries in townships; prescribing the powers of boards of township commissioners, boards of health, and the State Secretary of Health in connection therewith; and providing penalties."

Senate bill No. 703, entitled "An act creating a housing commission; defining its powers and duties; and making an appropriation."

Senate bill No. 1090, entitled "An act providing for the service of process in the civil suits upon nonresident operators or nonresident owners whose motor vehicles are operated within the State of Pennsylvania without being licensed under the provisions of the laws of the State of Pennsylvania; providing for the registration and licensing of drivers and operators and of motor vehicles; requiring the execution by them of a power of attorney to the Secretary of Highways of the State of Pennsylvania to accept civil process for them under certain conditions."

Senate bill No. 1153, entitled "An act making it unlawful for any individual or individuals to associate themselves by whatever name, style, or designation, for the purpose of carrying on or making any investigations, inquiries into, reports upon, or disseminating publicity regarding any civic, political or other activities of any city or township unless upon the filing of a certificate to that effect in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth and of the prothonotary; requiring county commissioners, at the expense of the county, to provide books for the entry of such certificates; fixing the fees of the Secretary of the Commonwealth and prothonotary; permitting the cancellation of such certificate or an entry to be made on the margin of the book in which such certificate was entered showing who have withdrawn from the said association; providing a method therefor; and prescribing penalties."

House bill No. 166, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the eighteenth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred twelve), entitled 'An act for the better regulation of public pool rooms, billiard rooms, bowling saloons and tenpin alleys in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,' as amended, permitting the employment in bowling and tenpin alleys of male minors under eighteen years when employed in accordance with the labor laws regulating the employment of minors."

House bill No. 501, entitled "An act authorizing building and loan associations within the Commonwealth, incorporated under the authority of the same, to increase their capital stock irrespective of the limitations of their charters, and providing the procedure for such increase."

House bill No. 693, entitled "An act to amend section two hundred and twenty of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and eighty-nine), entitled 'An act relating to insurance; establishing an insurance department; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating to the licensing, qualification, regulation, examination, suspension, and dissolution of insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and certain societies and orders; the examination and regulation of fire insurance rating bureaus, and the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and brokers; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws,' as amended, providing for the appropriation of fees collected by the department for administration purposes."

House bill No. 831, entitled "An act to amend section five hundred and one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and fifty-nine), entitled 'An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto,' as amended, changing the open season for raccoon."

House bill No. 883, entitled "An act to amend section forty-two of the act, approved the fifteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred thirty-seven), entitled 'An act relating to counties and townships and county and township officers,' as amended, permitting county treasurers to retain commissions collected as agents for the Commonwealth."

House bill No. 885, entitled "An act to amend section two hundred and twenty-five of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred and forty-eight), entitled 'An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth'; permitting county treasurers to retain for their own use the fees collected for services as agents of the Commonwealth."

House bill No. 1001, entitled "An act to amend section six of the act, approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred and forty-one), entitled 'An act providing for the preparation, contents, style, printing, and binding of the Legislative Journal, and its delivery and distribution; providing for the preparation, printing, and binding of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives; authorizing the appointment of official reporters, expert typewriters, clerks, and other employes, and providing for their compensation and mileage; providing for the making of an appendix and index the printing of wrappers or envelopes for mailing the Legislative Journal, and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith,' providing an interim salary for the chief official reporters and official reporters."

House bill No. 1004, entitled "An act to provide for the treatment and care of sick or disabled United States veterans having a legal residence in the State of Pennsylvania."

House bill No. 1051, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and sixty-four), entitled 'An act to increase the pay of jurors and witnesses in this Commonwealth,' as amended."

House bill No. 1122, entitled "An act providing for the certification of unsatisfied judgments, recovered as a result of an automobile accident, to the Secretary of Highways, and for the revocation of the operators' licenses and motor vehicle registrations of defendants, in such judgments to operate motor vehicles."

House bill No. 1131, entitled "An act to amend section twenty of the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred seventy-six), entitled 'An act to provide for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the anthracite coal mines of Pennsylvania, and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith,' as amended."

House bill No. 1396, entitled "An act empowering the prison board or salary board of counties of the fourth class to fix the salary of the prison warden."

House bill No. 1439, entitled "An act providing for the presentation of libels in divorce to the several courts of common pleas, and awarding of subpoenas thereon."

House bill No. 1523, entitled "An act creating a commission to study the laws relating to first class townships; to revise, restate, and harmonize existing laws, and to eliminate inconsistent, overlapping and redundant provisions of law, which appear obsolete or repealed by implication; and to draft such new legislation as may appear necessary, and to consolidate such laws; and making an appropriation."

House bill No. 1535, entitled "An act to amend paragraph five of section eight, and clauses one, two, three, and four of section twelve of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred fifty-eight), entitled 'An act establishing a State employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve; excepting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties; providing for the payment by the State of annuities to certain former State employes retired for disability before the establishment of the present State employes' retirement system."

House bill No. 1543, entitled "An act requiring cities of the second class to increase the salaries of certain employes."

House bill No. 1752, entitled "An act to amend clause ten, section three, article five of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred sixty-eight), entitled 'An act providing for the incorporation, regulation, and government of cities of the third class; regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein; and repealing, consolidating, and extending existing laws in relation thereto,' as amended."

House bill No. 1801, entitled "An act authorizing sheriffs to appoint special deputies for court service at the request of any judge, or when needed to guard prisoners being brought to court, and fixing the fees to be paid by counties for such services."

House bill No. 446, entitled "An act to amend section nine of an act, approved the fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred and thirty-four), entitled 'An act imposing a State tax, including an additional emergency State tax, on liquid fuels, including all liquids ordinarily, practically, and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power, and all distillates of, and condensates from petroleum, natural gas, coal, coal tar, and vegetable ferments so usable and sold in this Commonwealth except for the purpose of resale; providing for the collection of such tax, and for the distribution and use of the revenues derived therefrom; providing for the filing of certificates and reports of the sale of such liquid fuels to dealers; and fixing penalties,' as amended; extending the use of the county share of said tax to the construction, reconstruction, maintenance, and repair of county bridges."

House bill No. 218, entitled "An act to amend section two of the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred and eight), entitled 'A supplement to the twenty-fourth section of an act, entitled "An act to provide revenue by taxation, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine," approved the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, amending the twenty-fourth section by providing for the payment by the State Treasurer of one-half of the two per centum tax on premiums paid by foreign fire insurance companies to the treasurers of the several cities and boroughs within this Commonwealth.'"

House bill No. 1377, entitled "An act authorizing counties of the second class to appropriate moneys for Armistice Day purposes."

House bill No. 1379, entitled "An act authorizing cities of the second class to appropriate moneys for Armistice Day purposes."

Senate bill No. 572, entitled "An act providing for the relocation and change of width and lines of State highways in boroughs by the Secretary of Highways, and for the payment of damages occasioned thereby by counties."

House bill No. 696, entitled "An act to amend section one of an act, approved the ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred and seventy-nine), entitled 'An act authorizing cities of the third class to sell certain real estate; and prescribing the procedure to be followed; limiting its provisions to sales of real estate purchased at public sale for unpaid taxes as to protect a municipal claim or lien.'"

Senate bill No. 983, entitled "An act fixing the sheriff's salary in counties of the fourth class."

House bill No. 578, entitled "An act requiring counties of the second class to increase the salaries of certain employes."

House bill No. 1307, entitled "An act to amend section eight of an act, approved the tenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred fifty-seven), entitled 'An act to provide for the personal registration of electors as a condition of their right to vote at elections, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries, in cities of the first class of this Commonwealth, by removing from office all existing registration commissioners and their appointees in said cities, and authorizing the Governor to appoint registration commissions therein; defining the jurisdiction of said commissions and the powers and duties of the commissioners constituting same, and of their appointees, including registrars, inspectors of registration, clerks, and counsel; fixing their qualifications, terms of office and compensation; granting them certain immunity from arrest on registration days and, empowering such inspectors to arrest without warrant certain persons committing certain offenses in violation of this act in their presence, as well as to enter and inspect buildings given as residences of electors to interrogate the inmates thereof, to copy or demand a list of the lodgers therein, and to supervise the conduct of registrars; regulating the registration of electors at polling places by registrars, and at the offices of commissions by commissioners, and the right of parties or bodies of electors to have watchers thereat, and the preparation and use of street lists and other records of those registered; allowing the names of persons not entitled to vote to be struck from the registers in certain cases; permitting all records regarding registration to be inspected and copied by any elector under certain conditions; directing how the registers shall be used at elections and primaries; compelling the attendance of witnesses and payment of witness fees; and providing penalties for refusal to obey subpoenas; directing receivers of taxes to appoint chief clerks of commissions as deputies to collect poll taxes and to give receipts therefor; authorizing such clerks to administer oaths, sign subpoenas and vouchers, and to collect and disburse witness fees; prescribing a method for challenging persons applying for registration, and the procedure for the correction of registers, and for appealing from actions of registrars to said commissions; and allowing for appeals from the decisions of the commissions in certain cases to courts of common pleas; imposing certain duties upon election officers and upon the councils, treasurers, controllers, receivers of taxes, police officers, and other officials of said cities, and upon the courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, commissioners, peace officers, and other officials of the judicial districts and counties in which said cities are situated or with which they are coextensive; legalizing certain acts required hereby if done on any Sunday or legal holiday; requiring said cities to provide for the maintenance of said commissions, and the compensation of their appointees, and the payment of all expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of this act, and to transfer the unexpended balances of all appropriations heretofore made for the personal registration of electors of said cities during the year one thousand nine hundred and nineteen to and for the use of the said commissions; punishing and fixing penalties for violations hereof; and repealing all legislation inconsistent herewith."

House bill No. 1408, entitled "An act to amend sections three, twelve, and twenty-three of the act, approved the fourteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and ten), entitled 'An act allowing and regulating boxing, sparring, and wrestling matches and exhibitions; establishing a State Athletic Commission; making an appropriation therefor, and appropriating moneys received for monument and memorial purposes; and prescribing penalties'; increasing the salary of the secretary of the commission; exempting certain amateur contests; and permitting attendance of children under certain conditions."

House bill No. 1533, entitled "An act to amend section five of the act, approved the fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred ninety-eight), entitled "An act to establish a county court for the county of Allegheny, and prescribing its powers and duties; regulating the procedure therein, and providing for the expenses thereof"; fixing the salary of the prothonotary for acting as clerk of the county court and providing for the payment thereof by the county."

House bill No. 1613, entitled "An act fixing the salary of the county commissioners of counties of the sixth class, including their salary as directors of the poor."

House bill No. 1798, entitled "An act fixing the compensation of recorders of deeds in counties of the fourth class, and providing for the payment thereof by the county."

House bill No. 296, entitled "An act to regulate and establish the fees to be charged by justices of the peace, aldermen, and magistrates in this Commonwealth, and imposing liability for costs upon the county in certain cases."

House bill No. 1278, entitled "An act providing that county treasurers shall make report to, and pay over monthly, all moneys received by them, from taxes to the municipality, to which such taxes belong."

House bill No. 1416, entitled "An act providing for the taking over by the Commonwealth of certain county bridges on State highways designated as primary highways, and for their maintenance, construction, reconstruction, and repair by the Commonwealth."

House bill No. 1520, entitled "An act declaring certain marriages to be voidable; conferring jurisdiction upon the court of common pleas of the proper county to declare such marriages void; and prescribing procedure therefor."

House bill No. 1548, entitled "An act to amend routes three hundred and seventy-six, three hundred and seventy-seven, three hundred and eighty-six, three hundred and ninety-three, three hundred and ninety-four, three hundred and ninety-five, three hundred and ninety-seven, three hundred and ninety-eight, four hundred and thirty-eight, four hundred and forty, four hundred and sixty-eight, four hundred and ninety-three, four hundred and ninety-six, five hundred and eleven, five hundred, five hundred and twelve, five hundred and fifteen, five hundred and twenty-seven, and five hundred and forty-two of section one of an act, approved the eighth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred and ninety-one), entitled 'An act establishing certain public roads as State highways, and providing for their construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth.'"

House bill No. 1549, entitled "An act to enable city, county, poor, ward, school, borough, and township tax collectors, their executors and administrators if they are deceased, or either surety or sureties if the surety or sureties have paid the taxes, to collect taxes for the payment of which they have become personally liable, without having collected the same, by the expiration of the authority of their respective bonds, or by the expiration of the authority of their respective warrants, or by the expiration of their terms of office; and to extend the time for the collection of the same for a period of two years from the passage of this act."

House bill No. 1687, entitled "An act to amend section four of the act, approved the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and seventeen), entitled 'An act fixing the number, compensation, mileage, and duties of the officers and employes of the General Assembly, and providing for their election or appointment, term of office, and manner of filling vacancies.'"

Senate bill No. 285, entitled "An act to amend clause one of section three of an act, approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, ten hundred forty-three), entitled 'An act establishing a public school employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employes, defining the uses and purposes thereof, and the manner of payments therefrom; and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employes; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties,' as amended."

House bill No. 1749, entitled "An act continuing the commission to make an investigation of the condition of disabled World War veterans of Pennsylvania; providing for appointments of members on said commission and the powers and duties of the commission; and making an appropriation."

House bill No. 428, entitled "An act making a deficiency appropriation to the Board of Trustees of the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, of Edgewood, Pennsylvania."

Senate bill No. 969, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary to pay the cost of the appraisal of the property of said Penitentiary."

Senate bill No. 708, entitled "An act making a deficiency appropriation to the Board of Trustees of Shamokin State Hospital."

Senate bill No. 984, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Board of Trustees of the Selinsgrove State Colony for Epileptics."

Senate bill No. 855, entitled "An act making an appropriation for the purchase of copies of the history of the Twenty-eighth Division during the World War, and providing for the distribution thereof by the Governor."

House bill No. 465, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania."

House bill No. 1193, entitled "An act to provide for the publication of the Superior Court reports from volume one to sixty, inclusive."

House bill No. 1939, entitled "An act to provide for the publication of the Supreme Court reports from volume one to volume ninety-seven, inclusive, together with eighty-one and one-half."

House bill No. 1336, entitled "An act to provide for the publication of the Supreme Court reports from volume 98 to 267 inclusive."

House bill No. 1615, entitled "An act constituting a commission to act with a similar commission of the State of New Jersey for the purpose of providing a new bridge over the Delaware River from Dingman's Ferry to a point in Sussex County, New Jersey; defining the powers and duties of the joint commission; and making an appropriation."

House bill No. 1802, entitled "An act making an appropriation for the payment of unpaid claims owing by the Commonwealth for materials or supplies furnished through the Department of Property and Supplies."

House bill No. 1499, entitled "An act making an appropriation for providing, erecting, completing armories and stables for the use of the Pennsylvania National Guard, including title insurance, advertisement for bids, and other necessary expenses incident to the erection of State armories."

House bill No. 1488, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Military Affairs for preparing and compiling the record of the soldiers of Pennsylvania who participated in the Spanish-American War."

Senate bill No. 66, entitled "An act authorizing the Department of Forests and Waters to acquire by purchase or condemnation certain property at Chadds Ford, Delaware County, for a public historical park; providing for the management of said park by a departmental administrative commission hereby created; and making an appropriation for the acquisition and care of said property."

Senate bill No. 225, entitled "An act authorizing the Department of Highways to make repairs to, and provide for the construction and maintenance of, roads and highways in Washington Crossing Park, and making an appropriation therefor."

Senate bill No. 481, entitled "An act to provide for the refunding by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to national banks, of moneys heretofore held or possessed by national banks which were attempted to be made escheatable by an act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act providing for the escheat of deposits of moneys or property of another received for storage or safe-keeping; the dividends, profits, debts, and interests on debts of corporations, companies, banks, trust companies, insurance companies, limited partnerships, and partnership associations, organized under the laws of this Commonwealth, except mutual saving-fund society not having a capital stock represented by shares, and except also building and loan associations, and property held for the benefit of another by the same, and the profits, accretions, and interest on such property, as well as interest thereon accrued, or which should have accrued, between the fixing of the amount of such property by the award of any court and the actual distribution thereof,' and amendments thereto, which have been wrongly collected from said national banks by the said Commonwealth, and making an appropriation."

House bill No. 670, entitled "An act lapsing unexpended balances of appropriations heretofore made to the Water Supply Commission for the purpose of widening, deepening, and improving French Creek, in Crawford County."

Senate bill No. 269, entitled "A supplement to an act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand one hundred and twenty-three), entitled 'An act establishing in each county a board of viewers; prescribing their duties; providing for their appointment as viewers, road juries, juries of view, and commissioners to view land; and providing for the charge upon the respective counties in the matter of salaries, costs, and expenses thereof,' as the same was amended and supplemented by subsequent acts, by providing for the compensation to be paid to the members of the board of viewers in counties of the third class."

House bill No. 1685, entitled "An act fixing the salary of the prothonotary in counties of the fifth class."

House bill No. 1449, entitled "An act to permit general contractors to withdraw retained percentages on public works contracts, and to substitute therefor United States Government, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, or municipal bonds."

House bill No. 1636, entitled "An act to provide for the safety of the highways of cities of the second class A, authorizing councils to provide by ordinance for the filing of maps of excavations under highways, and for the inspection thereof."

House bill No. 1392, entitled "An act to amend section one of an act, approved the twenty-second day of March, one thousand nine hundred and seven (Pamphlet Laws, thirty-one), entitled 'An act to provide for the assignment of counsel in murder cases, and for the allowance of expenses and compensation in such cases.'"

House bill No. 1730, entitled "An act fixing the salaries of county controllers in counties of the fourth class."

House bill No. 1713, entitled "An act authorizing the county commissioners of any county of the first and second class to supplement an increase of indebtedness authorized for the purpose of erecting public buildings.”

House bill No. 314, entitled “An act to amend section thirty-eight of the act, approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and twenty-one), entitled ‘An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth, or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent, until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal,’ reducing the interest rate on unpaid taxes.”

House bill No. 1220, entitled “An act to prevent the trial in any court of the Commonwealth of any person, for any offense against the laws of the Commonwealth, who has previously been placed in jeopardy for the same offense against the laws of the United States.”

Senate bill No. 982, entitled “An act to amend section two of an act, approved the fourteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and seventy-four), entitled ‘An act authorizing the sheriffs of the several counties of this Commonwealth to organize themselves into a State association for the purpose of holding annual meetings to secure more uniformity and cooperation in the conduct of their offices, and providing for the payment of certain expenses in connection with such meetings by the various counties.’ ”

Senate bill No. 754, entitled “An act to amend sections one and two of an act, approved the twentieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand one hundred and thirty-eight), entitled ‘An act to regulate the salaries of tipstaves in the courts of common pleas, oyer and terminer and general jail delivery, quarter sessions of the peace, and orphans’ court, in counties having a population of over eight hundred thousand and less than one million four hundred thousand inhabitants,’ as amended.”

Senate bill No. 1373, entitled “An act to amend section four hundred and thirty-four of the act, approved the fourteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred and forty), entitled ‘An act concerning townships, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating thereto,’ as amended, increasing the amount of State reward for certain township road improvements.”

Senate bill No. 973, entitled “An act fixing the salaries of county controllers in counties of the fifth class.”

Senate bill No. 11, entitled “An act to make an appropriation for the improvement of the port facilities of the State of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, and providing for the expenditure thereof.”

Senate bill No. 229, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the University of Pennsylvania Museum."

Senate bill No. 695, entitled "An act to repeal the act, approved the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred sixty-two), entitled 'An act relative to the establishment of a law library in the county of Columbia.'"

Senate bill No. 251, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Latrobe Hospital, Latrobe, Pennsylvania."

Senate bill No. 721, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the agricultural experiment station of the Pennsylvania State College, to maintain substations for the purpose of making experiments in the improvement, culture, curing, and preparation of tobacco, and providing for the publication of the report thereof."

Senate bill No. 1105, entitled "An act making an appropriation from the Dog Fund to the Department of Agriculture for administration and enforcement of various laws."

Senate bill No. 60, entitled "An act to provide for one additional law judge of the court of common pleas of the Thirty-second Judicial District."

Senate bill No. 588, entitled "An act to amend sections two, six, seven, and eleven as amended, and to repeal sections one and three as amended, of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act providing for the escheat of deposits of money or property of another received for storage or safe-keeping; the dividends, profits, debts, and interest on debts of corporations, companies, banks, trust companies, insurance companies, limited partnerships, and partnership associations, organized under the laws of this Commonwealth, except mutual saving-fund society not having a capital stock represented by shares, and except also building and loan associations, and property held for the benefit of another by the same, and the profits, accretions, and interest on such property, as well as interest thereon accrued, or which should have accrued, between the fixing of the amount of such property by the award of any court, and the actual distribution thereof,' by excluding banks, banking corporations, and trust companies from the provisions thereof."

Senate bill No. 26, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Pennsylvania Memorial Home, of Brookville, Pennsylvania."

Senate bill No. 227, entitled "An act to further amend section thirty-six of the act, approved the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred seventy-eight), entitled 'An act relating to and regulating the use and operation of motor vehicles and vehicles propelled by, or trailing after, motor vehicles; requiring the registration of the same, and the licensing of all operators thereof; providing the fees therefor, and the disposition of such fees; prohibiting the unauthorized use of, and tampering with, motor vehicles; limiting and defining the powers of cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, and counties, as to the regulation of the use and equipment of motor vehicles, and the taxing, registration, or licensing thereof; imposing certain duties on the State Highway Commissioner, and on proprietors of public garages; providing procedure and penalties for violations thereof, and the disposition of fines collected, and regulating the service of process and proceedings in actions for damages arising from the use of any motor vehicle,' by prohibiting the registration of a motor vehicle for, and the issuance of a driver's license to, any person against whom a judgment of record for personal injuries, death or property damage remains unpaid for a period of six months."

Senate bill No. 866, entitled "An act to amend section nineteen of an act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred and eight), entitled 'An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy and the sale of poisons and drugs, and providing penalties for the violation thereof; defining the words "drug" and "poison," and providing for the appointment of a board which shall have in charge the enforcement of said law and the power to make rules and regulations for the enforcement of said law; and providing for the purchase of samples of drugs for determining their quality, strength and purity,' by excepting certain prescriptions from the requirement of keeping same on file for a period of at least five years."

Senate bill No. 331, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Waynesburg Hospital, of Waynesburg, Pennsylvania."

House bill No. 1656, entitled "An act creating an Insurance Law Commission; defining its powers and duties; and making an appropriation."

House bill No. 895, entitled "An act to repeal the act, approved the third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and ninety-one), entitled 'An act to provide for the filing, auditing, and confirmation, in certain cases, of accounts of trustees and of committees of lunatics and of habitual drunkards,' so far as the same relates to estates of lunatics and habitual drunkards."

House bill No. 181, entitled "An act to amend section two of the act, approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and twenty-one), entitled 'An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth, or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent, until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal,' as amended; fixing the rate for the taxation of property passing to or for the use of actual places of religious worship and institutions of purely public charity."

House bill No. 400, entitled "An act to amend section two of an act, approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and twenty-one), entitled 'An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a non-resident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth, or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent, until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal,' as amended; allowing further deductions where estates vest in direct heirs, and imposing additional taxes equal to federal credits."

House bill No. 1893, entitled "An act to further amend an act, approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred ninety-seven (Pamphlet Laws, eighty-three), entitled 'An act to provide for the maintenance, care, and treatment of the indigent insane in county and local institutions,' as amended; increasing the weekly payments, and extending the provisions of said act to poor districts."

House bill No. 547, entitled "An act making an appropriation for the payment of moral claims by the Commonwealth for injury to or death of persons while fighting forest fires under orders of the agents of the Department of Forests and Waters, and to carry into effect the provisions of the act, approved the eleventh day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred thirty-two), entitled 'An act making an appropriation, and providing for the hearing, adjusting, and paying of moral claims against the Commonwealth for injury to or death of persons while fighting forest fires under orders of agents of the Department of Forests and Waters.'"

House bill No. 1625, entitled "An act making an appropriation to Walter J. Bond, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for damages sustained to his Winton sedan car, sustained by collision with riderless horses of the National Guard of Pennsylvania."

House bill No. 1796, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Agriculture for the purpose of providing, erecting, and completing a building for the use of a State farm products show and an agricultural, industrial, and educational exposition during the month of January in each year; and that said building shall be jointly constructed by the Agricultural Department and the Armory Board of the State of Pennsylvania; and when completed shall be used as an armory as well as an agricultural building."

House bill No. 644, entitled "An act to amend section one of an act approved the thirtieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred nine), entitled 'An act regulating the publication of advertisements and notices required by law to be published in counties of this Commonwealth in newspapers published in the English language and newspapers published in the German language; as amended.'"

House bill No. 371, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Memorial Hospital at Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania."

House bill No. 18, entitled "An act to amend section two hundred and seventeen of an act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and nine), entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special, or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith; modifying the provisions relating to the removal of school directors for refusal or neglect to perform mandatory duties.'

House bill No. 19, entitled "An act to amend section seven hundred and eight of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and nine), entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method for collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special, or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith.'"

House bill No. 569, entitled "An act fixing the salaries of the Superintendents of the storerooms of the Senate and House of Representatives."

House bill No. 601, entitled "An act to amend sections three hundred and three, three hundred and four, three hundred and sixteen, and twelve hundred and one as amended, of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and fifty-nine), entitled 'An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto,' by providing a nonresident small game license; increasing the fee for unrestricted nonresident licenses, and restricting the use of the moneys derived from such increase."

House bill No. 1755, entitled "An act requiring public almshouses, hospitals, homes, and institutions, to keep on file and to forward to State Department of Welfare a copy of the record of each honorably discharged soldier and sailor admitted thereto."

House bill No. 1442, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the second day of July, one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred one), entitled 'An act to establish, in cities of the first and second class, a house or houses of detention for delinquent, dependent, and neglected children, and providing for the management and maintenance thereof,' so as to apply only to cities of the first class."

House bill No. 516, entitled "An act changing the estates of husband and wife in property hereafter acquired and held as tenants by entireties to tenants in common in the event of divorce."

House bill No. 448, entitled "An act to amend section three hundred of the act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and sixty-two), entitled 'An act concerning poor relief and the creation and government of poor districts and the administration of the same in all counties of the Commonwealth, except in counties of the first and second class; and revising, amending, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto, designating the county commissioners as directors of the poor in eighth class counties."

Senate bill No. 72, entitled "An act fixing the annual salary of directors of the poor in poor districts of the third and fourth classes where such directors are not also county commissioners."

House bill No. 20, entitled "An act regulating the trial of cross actions in trespass and the effect of verdicts therein when tried separately."

Senate bill No. 626, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the S. S. White Dental Manufacturing Company, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for the purpose of refunding moneys erroneously paid into the State Treasury as taxes under the Mercantile License Act."

Senate bill No. 860, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the erection and equipment of institutions for the detention, maintenance, employment, and education of delinquent women, and to carry into effect the provisions of the act approved the ninth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, twenty-four), entitled 'An act authorizing counties singly, or two or more counties acting together, to purchase land and erect buildings thereon, or to erect or add to and improve buildings already erected on lands owned by a county, for an institution for the detention of delinquent women sentenced to imprisonment for one year or less, and regulating the establishment, management, and maintenance of such institutions, and the reception, treatment, training, employment, and instruction of inmates therein, and the transfer of delinquent women from county prisons thereto or to other institutions in certain cases.'"

Senate bill No. 814, entitled "An act prohibiting corporations, associations, and companies from engaging in the business of soliciting and accepting premiums or dues and selling policies or contracts guaranteeing to owners of motor vehicles the services of attorneys; or providing for the towing of motor vehicles; or to hold themselves out to the public as authorized to engage in insurance business or in the kind of business usually transacted by insurance companies, associations, or exchanges, although transacted under some other name or description, unless such corporations, associations, and companies are incorporated or organized as insurance companies, associations, or exchanges, and registered and licensed by the Insurance Department; and repealing existing legislation in relation thereto."

House bill No. 667, entitled "An act to amend section two as amended, and section three of the act, approved the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred fifty), entitled 'An act concerning divorces'; requiring additional facts to be set forth in libels, regulating the service of subpoenas, and providing for the effect of the findings of fact by the master and the court below on appeal."

House bill No. 1372, entitled "An act defining, regulating, and providing for the licensing of the business of auctioneers; imposing duties upon county treasurers and municipal officers; and providing penalties."

House bill No. 1456, entitled "An act to amend section one thousand two hundred and two of an act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and nine), entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special, or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith, requiring teachers to be citizens.'

House bill No. 1665, entitled "An act relating to the fees of attorneys-at-law as part of the taxable costs in cases in the several courts of common pleas, County Court of Allegheny County, and Municipal Court of Philadelphia and on appeals to the Superior and Supreme Courts of this Commonwealth."

House bill No. 1795, entitled "An act to amend sections one, three four, five, seven, nine, ten, and eleven of the act, approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred and ninety-three), entitled 'An act to provide for the licensing and regulation of public dance halls and ballrooms, and for the regulation, supervision of public dances and balls in cities of the first, second, and third classes.'"

House bill No. 1894, entitled "An act regulating the erection, alteration, or construction of tenement houses in cities of the second class; imposing duties on the Bureau of Health and the Superintendent of the Bureau of Building Inspection in such cities; and providing penalties."

Senate bill No. 931, entitled "An act imposing a penalty for the nonpayment of borough taxes within certain periods, and providing for the collection thereof."

Senate bill No. 134, entitled "An act making an appropriation to pay the claim of William McCoach, Jr., against the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for labor and materials heretofore furnished for the plumbing and drainage of certain buildings for the State Institution for Feeble-Minded and Epileptic of Eastern Pennsylvania, at Pennhurst."

House bill No. 1631, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of the Auditor General for the purpose of reimbursing David Lupton's Sons Company, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for moneys erroneously paid into the State Treasury."

House bill No. 1908, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Auditor General for the refund of mercantile license taxes erroneously paid into the State Treasury."

House bill No. 1951, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Auditor General for refund to the heirs of Louis Steffens of moneys received into the State Treasury in the escheat proceedings on the estate of the said Louis Steffens."

House bill No. 1235, entitled "An act authorizing and regulating the construction of a bridge over the Susquehanna River between Dalmatia and McKees Half Falls, and making an appropriation therefor."

House bill No. 1126, entitled "An act to amend section two of the act, approved the twentieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, sixty), entitled 'An act providing for the appointment of the appraiser of mercantile and other licenses, and authorizing and requiring the publication of the same'; providing for a scale of advertising charges and a sworn statement of circulation to accompany the bills for said advertising."

House bill No. 1724, entitled "An act fixing the fees of the recorder of deeds in counties of the third class."

House bill No. 1845, entitled "An act authorizing counties of the fourth class to lay out, locate and adopt general plans of roads and highways within townships of such counties for the future development of such counties, and denying the recovery of damages for buildings and improvements erected within the lines thereof."

House bill No. 878, entitled "An act to amend section three of an act, approved the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and twenty-two), entitled 'An act relating to dogs, and the protection of live stock and poultry from damage by dogs; providing for the licensing of dogs by the Secretary of Agriculture; providing for the enumeration of dogs by assessors; regulating the keeping of dogs, and authorizing their destruction in certain cases; providing for the protection of licensed dogs, and for dogs temporarily imported for trial, show, and breeding purposes; prescribing certain privileges for hunting dogs, and dogs owned or used by the Board of Game Commissioners; providing for the assessment of damages done to live stock and poultry by dogs, and for the illegal killing of licensed dogs, and the payment of such damages by the Commonwealth; imposing powers and duties on certain State, county, city, borough, town, and township officers and employes; directing the payment of all moneys collected into the State Treasury; and making an appropriation therefor; and providing penalties,' as amended, allowing county treasurers as agents of the Commonwealth to retain certain fees for their services."

Senate bill No. 48, entitled "An act to amend sections one, two, and three of the act, approved the fourteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and fifty-four), entitled 'An act providing for the survey, construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of an Industrial State Highway between the cities of Chester and Philadelphia, and making the same a part of the system of State highways; providing for the taking of certain roads and of certain private property therefor under the power of eminent domain and the payment of damages by certain counties; and imposing certain powers and duties upon the Highway Commissioner and county commissioners;' authorizing the Secretary of Highways to make surveys and to construct said Industrial highway."

Senate bill No. 815, entitled "An act providing for the maintenance of State-aid highways by the Commonwealth, and appropriating moneys in the Motor License Fund for such purposes."

House bill No. 1700, entitled "An act to amend section five of the act approved the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and eight), entitled 'An act to fix the salaries of the judges of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, and the judges of the orphans' courts.'"

House bill No. 528, entitled "An act authorizing the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the chief clerk of the House of Representatives to appoint a secretary, and fixing their salaries."

House bill No. 247, entitled "An act relating to judicial sales and sales upon writs of execution or otherwise, and preserving the lien of mortgages on real estate other than upon unseated lands."

House bill No. 853, entitled "An act creating the Township Road Commission; defining its powers and duties; and making an appropriation."

House bill No. 433, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Highways, out of the Motor License Fund, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the act, approved the fourteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and sixty-one), entitled 'An act providing for the rebuilding by the Commonwealth through the Department of Highways, of certain county bridges; the procedure therefor; the payment of a portion of the cost thereof in certain cases by counties, cities, and railroads; and the maintenance thereof, when completed, by the counties.'"

House bill No. 449, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Monroe County Hospital, Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania."

House bill No. 1479, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Mercer Cottage Hospital, at Mercer, Mercer County, Pennsylvania."

House bill No. 1612, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the United Zion Home, Warwick Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania."

Senate bill No. 665, entitled "An act to repeal an act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred and twenty-one), entitled 'An act concerning conditional sales of chattels attached or to be attached to realty, and regulating the filing and effect thereof; and providing remedies and penalties.'"

Senate bill No. 40, entitled "An act to amend section nineteen of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred fifty-two), entitled 'An act to regulate the employment, in all kinds of industrial establishments, of women and children employed at wages or salary, by regulating the age at which minors can be employed and the mode of certifying the same, and by fixing the hours of labor for women and minors; to provide for the safety of all employes in all industrial establishments, and of men, women, and children in school-houses, academies, seminaries, colleges, hotels, hospitals, store-houses, office buildings, public halls, and places of amusements, in which proper fire escapes, exits, and extinguishers are required; to provide for the health of all employes and of men, women, and children in all such establishments, storehouses, and buildings, by proper sanitary appliances; and to provide for the appointment of inspectors, office clerks, and others, who, with the Chief Factory Inspector, shall constitute the Department of Factory Inspection; to enforce the same, and providing penalties for violations of the provisions thereof; fixing the term and salaries of the Chief Factory Inspector and his appointees,' as amended; exempting from inspection boilers used exclusively in drilling, cleaning out, and operating oil and gas wells."

Senate bill No. 280, entitled "An act to provide for the better protection of life and health by diminishing the danger from infectious and contagious diseases by requiring and regulating the examination, licensure, and registration of all persons entering the business of burying the dead; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act."

Senate bill No. 454, entitled "An act to amend section one of an act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred and seventy-nine), entitled 'An act to fix the salary and mileage of the members of the General Assembly, and to provide for the furnishing of such postage, stationery, and supplies as may be necessary for the conduct of their offices, and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith,' providing for the payment of salaries to estates of deceased members of the General Assembly."

Senate bill No. 558, entitled "An act providing for the rebuilding of county bridges over four hundred feet in length on improved State highway routes in counties of the sixth, seventh, and eighth classes, by the Department of Highways, at the expense of the Commonwealth."

Senate bill No. 666, entitled "An act concerning the discharge of obligors bound for the same debt or liability, and to make uniform the law relating thereto."

Senate bill No. 715, entitled "An act requiring poor districts and hospitals for mental diseases to establish a pension fund for all employes of district, including district, city, and county homes and hospitals for mental disease, and regulating the administration and payment of such pensions."

House bill No. 129, entitled "An act to amend section six of the act, approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred and seventy-six), entitled 'An act providing for the burial of certain persons who are, have been, or shall be soldiers, sailors, or marines, designated as "deceased service men"; defining the term "deceased service men"; authorizing county commissioners to provide markers and burial plots for such deceased service men at the expense of such county in which they shall die or have a legal residence at the time of their death; and providing for the burial of widows of soldiers, sailors, or marines'; by authorizing county commissioners to place suitably marked headstones at the graves of deceased soldiers, and providing penalties for the removal or defacing of markers."

House bill No. 131, entitled "An act authorizing suits brought to recover in cases of accidents in this Commonwealth in courts of common pleas to be certified to the Workmen's Compensation Board when discovered that the suit has been brought wrongfully; extending its provisions to all cases not finally adjudicated that may or shall have been begun in court within the limitations fixed to have proceeded before the Workmen's Compensation Board, also when the adjudication is within said period; and repealing all inconsistent laws."

House bill No. 436, entitled "An act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred and fifty-six), entitled 'An act to fix the salaries of the clerks of the State Department, in the office of the county treasurer of any county of this Commonwealth having a population of one million or over,' by increasing the salaries thereof in counties of the first class."

House bill No. 741, entitled "An act to amend sections six hundred and seventeen as amended, and seven hundred and eight, of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special, or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith'; regulating advertisements and notices for bids and the public opening thereof."

House bill No. 790, entitled "An act imposing an annual charge on lands of State institutions for road and school purposes."

House bill No. 865, entitled "An act to prevent the employment in this State of any child residing in another State during the time when the laws of his own State require his attendance at school."

House bill No. 908, entitled "An act to amend section one and section seventeen as amended, of an act approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred seven), entitled 'An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes and, in cities coextensive with counties, for city and county purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment and collection of the same; providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith; and modifying existing legislation which provides for raising revenue for State purposes.'"

House bill No. 1145, entitled "An act to amend section eighteen criers and tipstaves in counties of the third class."

House bill No. 944, entitled "An act fixing the salaries of court of an act, approved the fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred sixty-eight (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred sixty), entitled 'An act authorizing the erection of a poorhouse by the townships of North Abington, South Abington and Newton, in the county of Luzerne.'"

House bill No. 1151, entitled "An act providing that the times for the opening and closing of the tax duplicates in cities of the first class shall be as prescribed by the councils of the said cities; that duplicates of real estate assessments and taxes shall be furnished by the Board of Revision of Taxes to the Receiver of Taxes between January first and January twenty-fifth; and providing that, in addition to the matters now required by law to be included therein, the amounts which may be due at various intervals during the year in which such taxes are payable, upon each piece of taxable property, shall be shown, as well as the total amount of taxes payable for the said year; and repealing inconsistent legislation.”

House bill No. 1291, entitled “An act to amend section thirteen, article seven of an act, approved the nineteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty (Pamphlet Laws, eighty-nine), entitled ‘An act relative to the Lancaster county prison,’ by increasing the compensation of the members of the board of prison inspectors of Lancaster county.”

House bill No. 1316, entitled “An act to amend section two of the act, approved the eleventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seven (Pamphlet Laws, two hundred fifty-nine), entitled ‘An act to provide for the erection of a poorhouse for the better relief and employment of the poor in the townships of Oxford and Lower Dublin, in the county of Philadelphia’; changing the corporate name of said district, and providing for the purchase, acquisition, dedication, and sale of property and the use of the proceeds acquired from sales and conveyances.”

House bill No. 1397, entitled “An act requiring poor districts and hospitals for mental disease to establish a pension fund for all employes of district, including district, city, and county homes and hospitals for mental disease, and regulating the administration and payment of such pensions.”

House bill No. 1624, entitled “An act to further amend clause (a) one of section forty-one of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred forty-seven), entitled ‘An act relating to the administration and distribution of the estates of decedents and of minors, and of trust estates; including the appointment, bonds, rights, powers, duties, liabilities, accounts, discharge and removal of executors, administrators, guardians, and trustees, herein designated as fiduciaries; the administration and distribution of the estates of presumed decedents; widow’s and children’s exemptions; debts of decedents, rents of real estate as assets for payment thereof, the lien thereof, sales and mortgages of real estate for the payment thereof, judgments and executions therefor, and the discharge of real estate from the lien thereof; contracts of decedents for the sale or purchase of real estate; legacies, including legacies charged on land; the discharge of residuary estates and of real estate from the lien of legacies and other charges; the appraisalment of real estate devised at a valuation; the ascertainment of the curtilage of dwelling houses or other buildings devised; the abatement and survival of actions and the substitution of executors and administrators therein, and suits against fiduciaries; investments by fiduciaries; the organization of corporations to carry on the business of decedents; the audit and review of accounts of fiduciaries; refunding bonds; transcripts to the court of common pleas of balances due by fiduciaries; the rights, powers, and liabilities of nonresident and foreign fiduciaries; the appointment, bonds, rights, powers, duties, and liabilities of trustees durante absentia; the recording and registration of decrees, reports and other proceedings, and the fees therefor; appeals in certain cases; and, also, generally dealing with the jurisdiction, powers, and procedure of the orphans' court in all matters relating to fiduciaries concerned with the estates of decedents.'"

House bill No. 1658, entitled "An act to amend section one of an act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred thirty-three), entitled 'An act to exempt property to the value of three hundred dollars from levy and sale on execution and distress for rent.'"

House bill No. 1757, entitled "An act authorizing cities of the second class of this Commonwealth to store motor vehicles abandoned or seized in violation of the law; to advertise and sell such motor vehicles if not reclaimed within thirty (30) days after such seizure; providing for the payment of charges of such seizure, advertising and sale; and applying the proceeds of the sale, first, to the payment of such charges, and the balance to be paid to the city treasurer."

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State, at the City of Harrisburg, this thirteenth (Great Seal) day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and fifty-first.

JOHN S. FISHER

By the Governor:

CHARLES JOHNSON,

Secretary of the Commonwealth.

