Section 8,
act of July 5, 1917 (P. L. 693), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section eight of the act, approved the fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred ninety-three), entitled "An act authorizing and empowering the several counties of this Commonwealth to establish and maintain schools for the care and education of children, under the jurisdiction of the courts of quarter sessions of the peace, or other courts, sitting as juvenile courts, and to acquire land therefor by purchase or by condemnation; defining the scope and character of such schools; regulating the proceedings for the establishment, maintenance and management thereof; authorizing the county commissioners to make appropriation, levy taxes, and to incur indebtedness therefor; and providing that all such schools heretofore established by any county shall be continued and maintained under the authority of this act; removing the persons in charge thereof; and providing that any property heretofore acquired for any such schools shall be held and used for the schools provided for in this act," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Commitment
by juvenile court.

Commitment
by courts of other counties.

Section 8. Said school shall receive children upon the commitment of the [court of quarter sessions of the peace,] juvenile court of such county, or other court of such county sitting as a juvenile court; and such school may, upon a proper compensation being arranged for, receive children committed thereto by the juvenile courts of counties other than that by which said school is maintained.

Section 2. That said act be amended by adding thereto section sixteen, to read as follows:

Section 16 added.

Section 16. Any money realized from the sale of any products of said schools, or the farms connected therewith, or for the maintenance of children from other counties, may be used by said board of managers for such purposes as, in its discretion, it may decide will further the interests of the school. At the end of each calendar year, all such money shall be properly accounted for to the county commissioners or the county controller of such county by the filing of paid vouchers, properly approved, or by depositing in the county treasury in cash such balances as may remain at the end of the said each calendar year.
