Concurrent
jurisdiction.

Civil and criminal process.

When
effective.

Section 2. The jurisdiction so ceded to the United States of America is granted upon the express condition that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States, in and over the tracts of land aforesaid, so far that civil process in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania against any person or persons charged with the crimes committed without the said tracts of land, may be executed thereon in the same way and manner as if this jurisdiction had not been ceded. The United States are to retain such jurisdiction as long as said tract of land shall be used for the purposes expressed in the foregoing section, and no longer.

Section 3. This act shall be effective upon the date of its approval by the Governor.

APPROVED—The 5th day of May, A. D. 1931.
