A SUPPLEMENT

To the act, approved the eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred forty-three), entitled "An act providing that where any court of quarter sessions of the peace or court of oyer and terminer in this Commonwealth has heretofore made or entered, or shall hereafter make or enter, any order, sentence, decree or judgment for the payment of any moneys whatsoever, in any matter or thing within its jurisdiction, a copy of said order, sentence, decree or judgment may be certified to any court of common pleas of the same county, and be entered and indexed therein as a judgment and collected with like force and effect as if the same had been recovered as a judgment in the latter court," to limit the lien of such judgments and regulate the revival thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That no such order, sentence, decree or judgment, certified in accordance with the act to which this is a supplement, shall be a lien upon the real estate of the defendant until entered and indexed in the court of common pleas, in compliance with the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, and then shall remain a lien for the period of five years only, unless, within said period, the same is revived in manner provided in the act to which this is a supplement. Judgment of court of quarter sessions or oyer and terminer.

Not to be lien until entered in court of common pleas.

Revival.

APPROVED—The 22d day of June, A. D. 1931.
