AN ACT

To amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred one), entitled "An act authorizing collectors of delinquent taxes, except in cities of the first class, to accept payments of delinquent taxes or water-rents or rates in installments," extending the provisions thereof to county taxes, other than county taxes in counties of the second class, and clarifying the term "delinquent tax collector."

Taxation.

Section 1, act of August 26, 1932 (P. L. 101), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section one of the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred one), entitled "An act authorizing collectors of delinquent taxes, except in cities of the first class, to accept payments of delinquent taxes or water-rents or rates in installments," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Delinquent taxes and water-rents.

Collectors authorized to accept installment payments.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the collector of taxes, collector of delinquent taxes, constable, or delinquent tax collector, or other official authorized to collect delinquent taxes under the provisions of existing general or special legislation, during the period in which he is authorized to collect the delinquent taxes of any county, except a county of the second class, city, except a city of the first class, and of any borough, incorporated district, township, poor district or school district, shall have the power, at the request of any taxpayer, to accept payment in installments of delinquent taxes or water-rents or rates, both before and after the filing of liens therefor, but he shall not be obliged to accept any installment of less than ten per centum (10%) of the face amount of the tax, water-rent or rate when it became delinquent. The acceptance of any installment or installments by any delinquent tax collector shall not prejudice the city, borough, incorporated district, township, poor district or school district in the collection of any balance due, or in any way impair the validity of any lien filed for such delinquent taxes, water-rents or rates, or any balance due thereon, according to the provisions of any act of Assembly applicable thereto, nor shall any penalty be abated or diminished because of the acceptance of any such installment or installments, but interest on the amount of any installment shall cease after the month in which such installment is paid.

Liens.

Penalties.

Interest.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

When effective.

APPROVED—The 24th day of April, A. D. 1933.
