Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That sections ten, eleven, and thirteen of the act, approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred thirty-three), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of architecture in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by providing for the examination and registration of architects by a State Board of Examiners; defining the power and duties of said board of examiners; and providing penalties for the violation of this act," are hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 10. Each architect receiving a certificate of qualification under the provisions of this act shall, annually in the month of June during the time such holder shall desire to continue the practice of architecture as a registered architect in this State, apply for a renewal of said certificate, whereupon the said board shall, upon the payment of a fee of four dollars, issue to such architect, in such form as the said board may provide, a renewal of said certificate for the term of one year, and such renewal shall be duly registered by the secretary of said board in the official register of the board hereinbefore provided for.

In the event that any holder of a certificate of qualification to practice architecture shall neglect or fail to have said certificate renewed in the manner herein provided during the month of June in each and every year, the right of such architect to practice as a registered architect in this State shall cease and determine on the last day of the month of June during which said certificate should have been renewed under the provisions of this act, and it shall be the duty of the secretary of the said State Board of Examiners of Architects to give notice in writing of the expiration of such certificate to the holder thereof, and make a proper entry on said register showing the expiration of such certificates.

Entry on register.

Any holder of a certificate of qualification to practice architecture which has [been suspended] expired under the provisions of this [act] section may obtain a renewal of such certificate, at any time within one year from the date of its expiration, upon application to and the approval of the State Board of Examiners of Architects, and, upon obtaining such approval and receiving such certificate, shall pay to the secretary of the board a fee of ten dollars. The time of renewal may be extended at the discretion of the board of examiners.

Renewal of expired certificate.

Section 11. The said State Board of Examiners of Architects may, by unanimous action, revoke or suspend any certificate of qualification to practice architecture, issued or renewed under the provisions of this act, for incompetency or recklessness or for neglect of duty in the practice of architecture or for dishonest practice on the part of the holder thereof.

Revocation or suspension of certificates.

The board may suspend a certificate to practice architecture in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of any architect who uses, displays or advertises his name jointly as "architects" with the name of any other person not legally engaged in the practice of architecture: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing or prohibiting any architect holding a certificate of said board from using, displaying or advertising his or her name with the name of any other person or persons not an architect if each uses, displays or advertises his true appellation.

Suspension of certificate for misuse of name.

Proviso.

Any architect holding a certificate of said Board of Examiners of Architects against whom any of the foregoing charges may be preferred shall be furnished by the said board with a copy of the charges, and shall be entitled to a hearing before the said board, at which witnesses may be examined respecting the guilt or innocence of the person accused.

Copy of charges.

Hearing.

In the event that the holder of a certificate of qualification to practice architecture issued by the board shall be convicted in any court of competent jurisdiction in this or any other state or commonwealth of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, extortion, criminal conspiracy to defraud, or other like offense or offenses, and a duly certified or exemplified copy of the record in such proceedings shall be filed with the board, the board shall revoke or suspend forthwith the registration to practice architecture which it before issued to the registrant so convicted.

Revocation or suspension in case of conviction of criminal offense.

In the event that [said] a certificate is revoked or suspended by said board, the secretary shall make proper entry and registration of the fact of said revocation, and shall give notice in writing of such revocation to the holder of said certificate.

Registration and notice of revocation.

At any time after the expiration of six months from Reinstatement.

the date of revocation of said certificate, and upon the payment of all costs incurred by said board, the person whose certificate has been revoked may make application to the said Board of Examiners of Architects for a new certificate, and the said board, upon receiving evidence which in its opinion would warrant the granting of a new certificate, may, at its discretion, issue a new certificate upon the payment to its treasurer of a fee of ten dollars.

Fee.

Acts prohibited.

Section 13. On and after July first, one thousand nine hundred nineteen, it shall be unlawful for any person in the State of Pennsylvania to enter upon the practice of architecture in the State of Pennsylvania, or to hold himself or herself forth as an architect or as a "registered architect," or to use any word or any letters or figures indicating or intended to imply that the person using the same is a "registered architect," unless he or she has complied with the provisions of this act and is the holder of a certificate of qualification to practice architecture issued or renewed and registered under the provisions of this act.

When law is applicable.

This act shall not be construed to prevent persons other than architects from filing applications for building permits or obtaining such permits; nor shall it be construed to prevent such persons from designing buildings and supervising their construction, provided their drawings are signed by the authors with their true appellation as engineer or contractor or builder or carpenter, [or et cetera] but without the use in any form of the title of architect.

Effective date.

Section 2. This act shall become effective on the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

APPROVED—The 24th day of April, A. D. 1933.
