A SUPPLEMENT

To the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws, seven hundred sixty-two), entitled "An act providing for the creation and administration of a State Fund for the insurance of compensation for injuries to employes of subscribers thereto; declaring false oaths by the subscribers to be misdemeanors; and providing penalties for the violation thereof," providing for the examination and audit of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund by the Insurance Department, and appropriating the moneys in the fund for the payment of the cost of such audit and examination.

Workmen's
Insurance Fund.

Insurance
Department
directed to audit.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the Insurance Department, at least once each year, shall make a complete examination and audit of the affairs of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund, including all receipts and expenditures, cash on hand, and securities, investments, or property held representing cash or cash disbursements, to ascertain its financial condition and its ability to fulfill its obligations, whether the State Workmen's Insurance Board in managing the fund has complied with the provisions of law relating to the fund, and the equity of the board's plans and dealings with its policyholders.

Access to books, etc.

Section 2. For the purpose of any examination and audit authorized by this act, the Insurance Commissioner, his deputy or his examiners, shall have free access to all the books, records and papers pertaining to the State Workmen's Insurance Fund, and all persons charged with the management of the fund or connected therewith as employes are hereby directed and required to give to the Insurance Commissioner, his deputy or officers, the means, facilities and opportunity for such examination and audit.

Section 3. The expenses incurred by the Insurance Department in making any examination and audit under the provisions of this act shall be ascertained by the department, and shall be certified to the State Workmen's Insurance Board, whereupon the board shall draw its warrant for the payment thereof to the department out of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund. Any amount so received by the Insurance Department shall be paid by it into the General Fund, through the Department of Revenue. The moneys in the State Workmen's Insurance Fund are hereby appropriated for payment of expenses of audits and examinations made under this act.
