

No. 87

AN ACT

To amend section two of an act, approved the twenty-first day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred twenty-seven), entitled "An act relating to the extradition of persons charged with crime and to make uniform the law with reference thereto," by giving the Governor of this State authority to deliver up certain imprisoned persons for the purpose of trial for murder in the demanding State under certain conditions.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section two of an act, approved the twenty-first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred twenty-seven), entitled "An act relating to the extradition of persons charged with crime and to make uniform the law with reference thereto," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Extradition.

Section 2, act of April 21, 1927 (P. L.
327), amended.

Section 2. Criminals to Be Delivered upon Requisition.—Subject to the qualifications of this act, and the provisions of the Constitution of the United States controlling, and acts of Congress in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the Governor of this State to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this State.

Provided, If the executive authority of any other state or district requests the extradition of any person charged in that state with murder, and that person is imprisoned in a penal institution or jail of this State for a term less than imprisonment for life, the Governor of this State may deliver him or her up to the executive authority of the demanding state or district for the purpose of trial in said state or district: Provided, however, That prior to the removal of the person from this State, the executive authority of the demanding state or district shall have agreed that the person so delivered up is to be returned immediately to this State, at the cost of the demanding state or district, to serve the balance of his or her term of imprisonment in the event of his or her acquittal in the demanding state, or in the event of his or her conviction in such state of manslaughter or any degree of murder the punishment for which is less than death or imprisonment for life.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage, and approval by the Governor.

When
effective.

APPROVED—The 3d day of May, A. D. 1933.
