Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section five of the act, approved the twenty-ninth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred forty-four), entitled "An act relating to salaries, compensation, bonds, offices, and supplies of certain county officers, their deputies and clerks, in counties of the sixth class," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 5. The salary board in all counties of the sixth class, which shall be composed of the county commissioners and the county treasurer, shall fix and determine annually the number and the salaries to be paid to the clerks and deputies required for the proper discharge of business in the office of the county officers whose salaries are fixed by this act. Whenever the number or salaries of the clerks and deputies in any county office are being considered by the salary board, the county officer occupying such county office shall be a member of the salary board and be entitled to vote so long as matters affecting his office are under consideration and no longer. Any such county officer, deputy, or clerk, dissatisfied with amount of salary allowed by the salary board, may appeal from the action of such board to the court of common pleas of the county, which court shall, after hearing, make an order fixing the salaries of such appointees.

APPROVED—The 3d day of May, A. D. 1933.

AN ACT

Imposing penalties for improper use of food orders issued by or under the authority of the State Emergency Relief Board, or any poor board, or other relief agency, and improper furnishing of money, food, and other merchandise thereon.

Food orders.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That when used in this act, the term "food order" shall mean any order issued by or under the authority of the State Emergency Re-relief Board, or any poor board, or other relief agency, authorizing the furnishing and delivery of food to any person or persons therein named or described.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person, whether acting for himself or for another, or for any firm or corporation, directly or indirectly, to furnish or deliver to any person money, merchandise, or anything other than food on or in exchange for a food order.

Furnishing anything other than food on food order prohibited.

Section 3. It shall also be unlawful for any person, whether acting for himself or for another, or for any firm or corporation, to furnish or deliver food on or in exchange for a food order to any person other than the original recipient of the order, or in quantities or for prices other than those itemized on the food order at the time the food is furnished or delivered.

Furnishing food to other than original recipient, etc., prohibited.

Section 4. This act shall not apply to the negotiation of a food order after food to the full amount of the order shall have been furnished thereon to the original recipient of the order.

Negotiation of food order.

Section 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall, upon summary conviction before a magistrate, alderman, justice of the peace, mayor, burgess, or other officer having the powers of a committing magistrate, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) and costs of prosecution, and, in default of payment thereof, shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment for not less than ten nor more than thirty days. In addition to the penalties hereinbefore prescribed, the defendant shall also be adjudged to pay to the board, or other agency which shall have issued such food order, the face amount thereof.

Violation.

Penalty.

Section 6. This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage by the General Assembly and approval by the Governor.

When effective.

APPROVED—The 3d day of May, A. D. 1933.
