

Repayment of charges in case of redemption.

Section 4. In the case of the redemption of said lands, the person redeeming the same shall, in addition to the amount required to be paid to the county treasurer for taxes, penalties, interest and costs, also pay to the Department of Forests and Waters or the Board of Game Commissioners the full amount paid by said department or board as charges on said lands for county, township, and school purposes. No county treasurer shall mark such lands redeemed until the person redeeming the same exhibits a receipt from the Commonwealth showing that such charges have been repaid in full.

Certain law not applicable.

No provision of law requiring the person redeeming such lands to pay to the county treasurer twenty-five per centum (25%) additional to the taxes, penalties, interest and costs shall apply to purchases of lands made by the Department of Forests and Waters or Board of Game Commissioners, as provided in this act.

Return of amount paid for taxes, etc., upon redemption.

Section 5. Upon the redemption of any such lands, the amount paid to the county treasurer for taxes, penalties, interest and costs by the person redeeming such lands shall be for the use of the Commonwealth, and shall, immediately upon receipt, be transmitted by the county treasurer to the Department of Forests and Waters for payment into the State Treasury, through the Department of Revenue, and to the Board of Game Commissioners for deposit in the Game Fund.

When effective.

Section 6. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Repeal.

Section 7. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

APPROVED—The 22d day of May, A. D. 1933.

GIFFORD PINCHOT

No. 166

AN ACT

To amend section two of the act, approved the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws, thirty-one), entitled "A further supplement to the act regulating elections in this Commonwealth," as amended, eliminating one of the days required of registry assessors sitting at the polling places.

Registry assessors.

Section 2. act of January 30, 1874 (P. L. 31), as last amended by act of May 16, 1895 (P. L. 75), further amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section two of the act, approved the thirtieth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws, thirty-one), entitled "A further supplement to the act regulating elections in this Commonwealth," which was last amended by section one of the act approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws, seventy-five), entitled "An act to amend sections two and three of an act, entitled 'A further supplement to the act regulating elections in this Commonwealth,' approved the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, changing the time and manner of making the registry of voters and the duties of registry assessors," is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the said assessor to forthwith make a copy of the said original list, with the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made out as soon as practicable. It shall be his duty, on or prior to the fourth Monday of May and on or prior to the second Monday of December in each year, to place a copy on the door of, or on the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the original list in his possession for the inspection, free of charge, of any person resident in the said election district who shall desire to see the same; and it shall be the duty of the said assessor to assess, from time to time, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such claimant, and mark opposite the name 'C. V.,' and immediately assess him, noting as in all other cases his occupation, residence, the date of his assessment, whether a boarder or housekeeper; if a boarder, with whom he boards, and whether naturalized or designing to be, marking in all cases opposite the name the letter 'N.,' 'D.,' or 'I. N.,' as the case may be; if the person claiming to be assessed be naturalized he shall exhibit to the assessor his certificate of naturalization; and if he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next ensuing election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention, if such previous declaration is required by the laws of the United States. It shall be the duty of the said assessor to be present at the election house of the said election district, during the [two secular days] day next preceding the day fixed by the third section of this act for returning the lists to the county commissioners, from ten ante meridian to three post meridian, and from six post meridian to nine post meridian, [of each of said days] for the purpose of hearing and acting upon applications to be made under the provisions of this section, or relating to names upon said list, or that are sought to be placed thereon, or struck therefrom; and it shall be his duty to correct said original list by adding thereto, upon personal application, the names of persons entitled to vote not already thereon, and by striking therefrom fictitious names, or names of persons who may have died or removed from said district; and in all cases it shall be the duty of the said assessor to enter in his book, opposite the name of each voter, the name or names of the person or persons, together with the residence of the same, who shall furnish information as to the residence and qualifications of each voter who has been assessed, or as to the persons whose names shall be stricken from Assessor to make copy of original list.

Copy to be placed on door of voting place.

Original to be retained for inspection.

Assessment on personal application.

How to be marked.

Persons naturalized to exhibit certificate of naturalization.

Assessor to be at election house one day to hear and act on applications.

Correction of original list.

Name of person furnishing information to be entered on book.

Original list to be open for inspection.

Court of common pleas to hear complaints.

Amendment not to apply to cities of first and second class.

When effective.

said original list; and the said original list shall be open for inspection by any qualified elector of the county or ward in which the election district is situated, as well as by the person claiming to be registered; and the court of common pleas of the proper county, or any law judge thereof at chambers, on the application of any qualified elector of the ward or county, under oath, which oath may be made at any time before the day of election, shall call the assessor and the complainant before it or him, by citation or rule to show cause, and shall hear the parties and dispose of the subject in a summary manner, as to law and justice shall belong, and shall, if need be, order the assessor to correct the registry accordingly, and the said court or judge may enforce such order by attachment as in proceedings for contempt: Provided, That nothing contained in this amendment shall be construed as applying to cities of the first and second class, but in such cities the said assessor shall be present at the election house of said election district during the two secular days next preceding the day fixed by the third section of this act, and perform the duties herein specified.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

APPROVED—The 22d day of May, A. D. 1933.

GIFFORD PINCHOT

No. 167

AN ACT

Fixing the compensation of assessors and registry or assistant assessors performing duties pertaining to the assessment and registration of voters in counties other than first and second class, and repealing existing acts relating thereto.

Assessors.

Counties other than first and second class.

Compensation.

Compensation for sittings at polling places.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in counties other than counties of the first and second class, the assessors and assistant or registry assessors, performing duties pertaining to the assessment and registration of voters, shall receive, as full compensation for such duties, the sum of ten cents for each person assessed by them and entered on the registry list; but the amount of such compensation to be paid to any assessor or assistant or registry assessor for any assessment period shall not exceed the amount he would receive if he were paid three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per day for each day actually employed in the performance of such duties. In addition to the compensation above provided, they shall receive the sum of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per day for the special sittings at the polling places before elections and primaries as provided by law.