No. 167

AN ACT

Fixing the compensation of assessors and registry or assistant assessors performing duties pertaining to the assessment and registration of voters in counties other than first and second class, and repealing existing acts relating thereto.

Assessors.

Counties other than first and second class.

Compensation.

Compensation for sittings at polling places.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in counties other than counties of the first and second class, the assessors and assistant or registry assessors, performing duties pertaining to the assessment and registration of voters, shall receive, as full compensation for such duties, the sum of ten cents for each person assessed by them and entered on the registry list; but the amount of such compensation to be paid to any assessor or assistant or registry assessor for any assessment period shall not exceed the amount he would receive if he were paid three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per day for each day actually employed in the performance of such duties. In addition to the compensation above provided, they shall receive the sum of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per day for the special sittings at the polling places before elections and primaries as provided by law.

Section 2. Such assessors and assistant or registry assessors shall keep an account of the several days by them actually employed in the performance of their duties pertaining to elections, and shall make return of the same to the county commissioners, verified by their oath or affirmation.

Account of time employed.

Section 3. The following acts and parts of acts are hereby repealed as particularly set forth, except so far as they relate to counties of the first and second class:

Repeals.

Section seven of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand forty-three), entitled "An act to provide for the registration and enrollment of the voters of the State according to their respective party preferences; fixing the compensation of assessors and registry assessors for making such registration and enrollment; and prescribing penalties for false registration or enrollment, and for voters voting or attempting to vote, and for election officers wilfully permitting or conspiring to permit them to vote, at a primary, by or on any other than their own party ticket," absolutely.

Section 7, act of July 25, 1913 (P. L. 1043), absolutely.

The act approved the fourth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, thirty-five), entitled "An act fixing the per diem compensation of borough and township assessors and assistant assessors, and the method of ascertaining the number of days employed," in so far as it relates to duties pertaining to the assessment and registration of voters.

Act of April 4, 1919 (P. L. 35), partially.

The act approved the twelfth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred thirty-four), entitled "An act to amend the act, approved the fourth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, thirty-five), entitled 'An act fixing the per diem compensation of borough and township assessors and assistant assessors, and the method of ascertaining the number of days employed,' by fixing the per diem compensation of assessors and assistant assessors in boroughs, wards, and townships of the second class, and providing the method of ascertaining the number of days employed," in so far as it relates to duties pertaining to the assessment and registration of voters.

Act of May 12, 1921 (P. L. 534), partially.

The act approved the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws, fifty-three), entitled "An act fixing the per diem compensation of registry or assistant assessors in townships of the first class for the performance of election duties, and the method of ascertaining the number of days employed," in so far as it relates to duties pertaining to the assessment and registration of voters.

Act of April 3, 1923 (P. L. 53), partially.

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

General repeal.

APPROVED—The 22d day of May, A. D. 1933.
