

after said date, designed or used for the purpose of carrying passengers for hire or as a public conveyance, to transport school children, or others, unless such vehicle be equipped with safety glass, whenever glass is used in doors, windows or windshields.

(c) It shall be unlawful, on and after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, to operate, on any public highway or street in this Commonwealth, any motor vehicle, manufactured or assembled after said date, unless such vehicle be equipped with safety glass, whenever glass is used in doors, windows or windshields.

(d) The secretary shall maintain a list of types of safety glass approved by him as conforming to the specifications and requirements for safety glass as set forth in this section, and shall not issue a license for or relicense any motor vehicle, subject to the provisions of subsections (b) or (c) of this section, after the effective date of each subsection, unless said motor vehicle is equipped as therein provided with such approved type of safety glass.

Penalty. The owner and operator of any motor vehicle operated in violation of the provisions of this section shall, upon summary conviction before a magistrate, be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and costs of prosecution, and, in default thereof, shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days.

In case of the violation of this act by any common carrier or person operating under a certificate of public convenience issued by the Public Service Commission, such certificate shall be revoked or, in the discretion of the commission, suspended until the provisions of this section are satisfactorily complied with.

APPROVED—The 31st day of May, A. D. 1933.
