judges to districts other than their own, for the purpose of expediting business, with provision for their compensation," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. Any president judge of any such court where there is only one judge, or a majority of any such court where there is more than one judge, being of the opinion that it is necessary for the purpose of expediting the business of the said court, shall have the power to call upon any of said judges, so registered as aforesaid, by transmitting a written request to the prothonotary of the supreme court, who shall forthwith send such request to the judge so called upon. If no particular judge is designated in the call, then the prothonotary shall transmit the request to one of the judges who is registered upon the docket as having time to spare during the period named in said call. [and] The judge who responds to any [such] call under this section, and files with the prothonotary a certificate that his own work has been completed or that a substitute judge will not be required in his district because of his absence, shall thereupon be assigned to specially preside in the district from which the call has come, for the purpose of transacting the business thereof, with the same power and authority as vested in the judge or judges of said district: Provided, That no judge shall be assigned to any district while any judge thereof is assigned to and presiding in another district under the provisions of this act.

Section 2. That section four of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 4. Each judge so assigned, and presiding in said court as aforesaid, shall, at the end of the month in which he is so engaged, make and forward to the Auditor General, on a blank form to be furnished for that purpose, the place or places where he presided as judge, the name of the court, the number of cases heard, and nature of the same, that is, criminal, civil or in equity, [and] the number of days engaged, and an itemized list of official expenses incurred during such assignment.

Section 3. This act shall become effective on the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

APPROVED—The 1st day of June, A. D. 1933.

AN ACT

To amend the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred seventy-eight), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes: and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by authorizing counties of the second class to levy and collect tolls on certain county bridges for the purpose of paying off the indebtedness incurred in locating, constructing and purchasing such bridges.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred and seventy-eight), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto," is hereby amended by adding, after section seven hundred and eighty, the following section:

The General
County Law.

Tolls on certain county bridges.

Act of
May 2, 1929
(P. L. 1278), amended.

Section 781. Collection of Tolls to Pay off Indebtedness in Second Class Counties.—That hereafter in all counties of the second class whenever it is necessary in the location, construction or purchase of any bridge, as provided for under article nine (9) of this act, to issue bonds in payment of same, including the approaches thereto, the damage sustained by the owner or owners of lands or buildings taken in the location, construction or purchase thereof, and including reasonable fees for necessary legal services required in such location, construction or purchase, the county commissioners may, if the cost of such bridge is in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000), assess, supervise and collect tolls, for the use of such bridge for all vehicle traffic, as may be necessary to pay the interest on said bonds and to create a sinking fund for the payment and redemption of the same within thirty years from the date of the issue thereof, and to pay also the costs and expenses of operating, maintaining and repairing such bridge between the time of the location, construction or purchase thereof and the date of the redemption of the last of said bonds to be redeemed by such tolls. In no case shall any tolls be collected after the redemption of the original bonds issued.

APPROVED—The 1st day of June, A. D. 1933.
