Acts prohibited.

Section 13. On and after July first, one thousand nine hundred nineteen, it shall be unlawful for any person in the State of Pennsylvania to enter upon the practice of architecture in the State of Pennsylvania, or to hold himself or herself forth as an architect or as a "registered architect," or to use any word or any letters or figures indicating or intended to imply that the person using the same is a "registered architect," unless he or she has complied with the provisions of this act and is the holder of a certificate of qualification to practice architecture issued or renewed and registered under the provisions of this act.

When law is applicable.

This act shall not be construed to prevent persons other than architects from filing applications for building permits or obtaining such permits; nor shall it be construed to prevent such persons from designing buildings and supervising their construction, provided their drawings are signed by the authors with their true appellation as engineer or contractor or builder or carpenter, [or et cetera] but without the use in any form of the title of architect.

Effective date.

Section 2. This act shall become effective on the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

APPROVED—The 24th day of April, A. D. 1933.
