

ment of judgments of the common pleas courts. These writs shall be executed by the sheriff of the county; and the practice in the execution of writs of fieri facias, capias ad satisfaciendum, and de retorno habendo shall be the same as is provided by law in the case of writs issuing out of the court of common pleas, except that such writs shall be returnable as the county court may by rule prescribe. In writs of attachment execution the practice shall be the same as in cases of other civil suits in the county court, subject to such special rules as the court may prescribe. No writ of fieri facias or attachment-execution issuing out of the county court shall, in any manner, operate as a lien on, or be used for the sale of, real estate: Provided, however, That when a transcript of the record of the county court, showing a final judgment rendered in that court, shall have been filed in the office of the prothonotary, as provided in this section, no process of execution or attachment execution shall thereafter issue out of the county court; but this provision shall not be taken to prevent the final disposition of any execution or attachment proceedings in the county court then pending.

When effective.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

APPROVED—The 24th day of April, A. D. 1935.

No. 29

AN ACT

To establish jurisdiction in cases of kidnapping and murder perpetrated in kidnapping.

Kidnapping or murder in the perpetration of kidnapping.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in order to obviate the difficulty of proof of the place where an offense of kidnapping, or murder in the perpetration of kidnapping was committed, it shall be sufficient to allege, in any information or indictment for kidnapping, or for murder in the perpetration of kidnapping, that the offense was committed in any county in, through or into which, the defendant carried or conveyed or brought the kidnapped person, and every such offense may be inquired of, tried, and punished in the county within which the same shall be so alleged to have been committed, in the same manner as if it had been actually committed therein.

When effective.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

APPROVED—The 24th day of April, A. D. 1935.
