

game of any kind with any vehicle, or to use any vehicle or its lights or equipment for the killing, wounding or catching of game of any kind, or to use any vehicle for the transportation of game illegally killed.

(g) Hunting with Decoys.

It is unlawful for any person, or for any number of persons acting together, to place in any of the waters of this Commonwealth for the purpose of attracting wild water-fowl more than thirty-six specimens of artificially prepared wooden ducks, or ducks of any character commonly used as decoys, or to shoot over or attempt to control more than thirty-six such decoys, so placed as to cover not exceeding one-fourth of a mile, upon any stream or lake.

It is unlawful for any person, or for any number of persons acting together, to use decoys unless each specimen is marked with a metallic plate or tag, giving in plain English, the name and address of the owner or owners, or to have such decoys in the water more than thirty-six hours without removing them for at least twelve hours before replacing in the water.

AN ACT

To amend section ninety-eight of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred forty-eight), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," prohibiting the purchase, sale, and exposing for sale, of certain pike and filets thereof.

Section 98. act of May 2, 1925
(P. L. 448),
amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section ninety-eight of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred forty-eight), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 98. Legal Size and Weight of Fish and Filets. No person shall catch by means of any net or device for which a license is issued under the provision of this article any:

- (a) Blue pike and sauger pike, less than eleven inches in length;
- (b) Yellow pike, less than thirteen inches in length;
- (c) Yellow perch, less than nine inches in length;
- (d) Ciscos, not less than six ounces in weight in the round; or

(e) Whitefish, less than one and three-fourths pounds in weight in the round.

No person shall purchase, sell, or expose for sale, any blue pike or sauger pike, less than eleven inches in length in the round; or blue pike or sauger pike fillets, less than seven inches in length, dressed and cut out, caught in waters under the control of the Commonwealth, or in waters without this Commonwealth and received in interstate commerce, or otherwise.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall on conviction, as provided in chapter fourteen of this act, be subject to a penalty of ten dollars for each fish or fillet so taken, [or] had in possession, purchased, sold, or offered for sale.

The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to a person who, having caught any fish less than the size or weight permitted, returns such fish in the condition in which they were caught to the waters from which they were taken.
