

Section 4. Each foreign-trade zone established and maintained within the limits of this Commonwealth shall be operated as a public utility, and all rates and charges for all services or privileges within the zone shall be fair and reasonable, but no such rates or charges shall be subject to supervision, regulation or control by the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Every municipality and private corporation operating and maintaining a foreign-trade zone shall afford to all who may apply for the use of the trade zone and its facilities and appurtenances, uniform treatment under like conditions, subject to such treaties or commercial conventions as are now in force or may hereafter be made from time to time by the United States with foreign governments.

Rates.

Section 5. Each municipality and private corporation, operating a foreign-trade zone within the limits of this Commonwealth, shall file a copy of each and every report which it shall make, or be required to make, under the act of Congress with the State Department of Internal Affairs.

Report.

Section 6. If any provision of this act or the application of such provision to certain circumstances be held invalid, the remainder of the act, and the application of such provisions to circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid, shall not be affected thereby.

Constitutional provision.

Section 7. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

When effective.

AN ACT

To amend the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand eight hundred eight), entitled "An act fixing the time when statutory law hereafter enacted shall become effective."

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand eight hundred eight), entitled "An act fixing the time when statutory law hereafter enacted shall become effective," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Act of May 17, 1929
(P. L. 1808), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That all laws hereafter enacted finally [by] at a regular session of the General Assembly, except laws making appropriations, shall be in full force and effect only from and after the first day of September next following their final enactment, unless a different date is specified in the act itself.

When acts,
enacted at regular session,
become effective.

When appropriation acts become effective.

Appropriation laws, or laws having appropriation items, enacted finally at a regular session of the General Assembly, shall be in full force and effect from and after the first day of June next following their final enactment, unless a different date is specified in the act itself, or unless any such appropriation law or law having an appropriation item is enacted finally after the first day of June in any year, in which case it shall be in full force and effect immediately upon final enactment.

When acts, enacted at special session, become effective.

All laws, enacted finally at a special or extraordinary session of the General Assembly, shall be in full force and effect immediately upon final enactment, unless a different date is specified in the act itself.

"Final enactment" or "enacted finally," defined.

The words "final enactment" or "enacted finally" as used in this act shall be construed to mean the time when the procedure required by the Constitution for the enactment of a bill into a law has been complied with.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

APPROVED—The 10th day of June, A. D. 1935.

AN ACT

To amend section fifteen of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred thirty-seven), entitled "An act affecting marital relations; prescribing grounds and regulating proceedings for divorce and the annulment of bigamous marriages; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating thereto," further regulating the jurisdiction of the courts in divorce actions.

Section 15, act of May 2, 1929 (P. L. 1237), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section fifteen of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred thirty-seven), entitled "An act affecting marital relations; prescribing grounds and regulating proceedings for divorce and the annulment of bigamous marriages; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating thereto," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 15. Jurisdiction.—The several courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth shall have original jurisdiction of cases of divorce from the bonds of matrimony, from bed and board, and in the annulment of marriages under the provisions of this act. The said courts shall have power to grant divorces, and to annul marriages, notwithstanding the fact that the marriage of the parties and the cause for divorce occurred outside of this Commonwealth, and that both parties were at the
