

and subjects of taxation for county purposes, and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations; amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto; and repealing existing laws," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 412. Assessment of Seated Lands Divided by Township Lines.—Where seated lands are divided by the boundary line between [two townships, or between] a township and a city, borough or town, and the mansion house is situate in a township, the whole of such lands shall be assessed only in the township where the mansion house is situated. Where the mansion house is situated in a city, borough or town, and the balance of such seated lands are located in one or more townships, the land located in such township or townships shall be assessed therein, and the land located in the city, borough or town shall be assessed therein.

Where seated lands are divided by the boundary line between two townships, the land located in each township shall be assessed therein, notwithstanding the situs of the residence or mansion house.

When effective.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment, but nothing herein contained shall authorize a change in any existing assessment previous to the next triennial assessment.

APPROVED—The 11th day of June, A. D. 1935.

No. 135

AN ACT

Prescribing the courts to which successive appeals by the same or different parties, but involving the same questions shall be taken; regulating the disposition of such appeals; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That whenever any appeal shall be cognizable by and taken to the Supreme Court, all other appeals involving the same questions thereafter taken by any persons whatsoever from the same judgment, order or decree, or from a judgment, order or decree entered in the same case, or in a case which was consolidated with it for purposes of trial or argument, shall also be taken to the Supreme Court.

Appeals to the Supreme Court involving same parties or questions.

Section 2. Whenever any appeal shall be taken to the Superior Court, and thereafter, but before such appeal has been argued in that court, another appeal involving the same questions and cognizable by the Supreme Court is taken by any person whatsoever to the Supreme Court from the same judgment, order or decree, or from a judgment, order or decree entered in the same case, or in a case which was consolidated with it for purposes of trial or argument, the Superior Court may certify such appeal to the Supreme Court for hearing and disposition.

Superior Court may certify record to Supreme Court, where a case involving the same question is appealed to Supreme Court.

Section 3. The act, approved the thirteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, eight hundred eighty-nine), entitled "An act to direct appeals to the Supreme Court, from any decree of distribution wherein the fund for distribution—whenever any appeal from such decree involving the same question shall be cognizable by and taken to the same court," is hereby repealed.

Act of June 13, 1911 (P. L. 889), repealed.

All other acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Inconsistent acts repealed.
