AN ACT

To amend section six of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred three), entitled "An act relating to the form, execution, revocation, and interpretation of wills; to nuncupative wills; to the appointment of testamentary guardians; to spendthrift trusts; to forfeiture of devise or legacy in case of murder of testator; to elections to take under or against wills, and to the recording and registering of such elections and of decrees relative thereto, and to the fees therefor."

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section six of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, four hundred three), entitled "An act relating to the form, execution, revocation, and interpretation of wills; to nuncupative wills; to the appointment of testamentary guardians; to spendthrift trusts; to forfeiture of devise or legacy in case of murder of testator; to elections to take under or against wills, and to the recording and registering of such elections and of decrees relative thereto, and to the fees therefor," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 6, act of June 7, 1917
(P. L. 403),
amended.

Section 6. No estate, real or personal, shall be bequeathed or devised to any body politic, or to any person in trust for religious or charitable uses, except the same be done by will [attested by two credible, and, at the time, disinterested witnesses] at least thirty days before the decease of the testator; and all dispositions of property contrary hereto shall be void and go to the residuary legatee or devisee, heirs or next of kin, according to law. [A disinterested witness, within the meaning of this section, is a witness not interested in such religious or charitable use,—this section not being intended to apply to a witness interested in some other devise or bequest in the same instrument.]

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment. When effective.
