No. 150

AN ACT

Prohibiting the use of the designation of "college" by any institution not conforming to the standards of a college prescribed by the State Council of Education; and providing for injunctions, and penalties.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the State Council of Education shall prescribe standards and qualifications for all educational institutions entitled to apply to themselves the designation of "college."

Section 2. It is unlawful for any person, copartnership, association or corporation to apply to itself, either as a part of its name or in any other manner, the designation of "college" in such a way as to give the impression that it is an educational institution conforming to the standards and qualifications prescribed by the State Council of Education, unless it in fact meets such standards and qualifications: Provided, That any corporation heretofore formed, the corporate name of which, or any persons, partnership or association now conducting any educational institution, the trade or fictitious name of which, includes such designation, may continue to use such corporate, trade or fictitious name.

State Council of Education shall prescribe standards for schools entitled to use the word "college."

School must qualify before the word "college" may be used.

* "of" in the original.

Secretary of the Commonwealth to submit charters to State Council of Education.

Section 3. The Secretary of the Commonwealth and the courts of common pleas shall not approve any corporate name including the word "college" used in such a way as to give the impression that it is an educational institution conforming to the standards and qualifications prescribed by the State Council of Education, unless the application for incorporation or change of name is accompanied by a certificate from the Department of Public Instruction that the corporation or proposed corporation is entitled to use such designation.

Injunction to restrain the use of the word.

Section 4. Upon application of the Department of Justice any court of common pleas shall, in a proper case where a violation of this act is shown, grant an injunction restraining the use of the designation of "college."

Penalty.

Section 5. Any person, copartnership, association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall, upon summary conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100), or in the case of individuals, the members of copartnerships and the officers of associations and corporations to undergo imprisonment for not more than thirty (30) days, or both.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

Section 6. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
