AN ACT

To amend section three of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand one hundred ninety-five), entitled "An act for the encouragement of agriculture and the holding of agricultural exhibitions; providing State aid for certain agricultural associations, and regulating the payment thereof," reducing the number of days during which exhibitions need be held.

Section 3, act of July 25, 1917 (P. L. 1195), amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That section three of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand one hundred ninety-five), entitled "An act for the encouragement of agriculture and the holding of agricultural exhibitions; providing State aid for certain agricultural associations, and regulating the payment thereof," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3. No incorporated county agricultural association shall be entitled to the benefits of this act unless it shall hold an annual exhibition in the interest of stock-raising, grain, poultry, handiwork, dairy products, and the like. Such exhibitions shall continue at least three [consecutive] days: Provided, That the Auditor General shall have power to extend the benefits of this act to any incorporated county agricultural association, whose exhibition continues less than three days, in any county where no county agricultural association holds an exhibition for a three day period.

Section 2. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

APPROVED—The 1st day of June, A. D. 1937.
