manual labor, shall have the right to hawk, peddle, and vend any goods, wares, or merchandise, or solicit trade within this Commonwealth, by procuring a license for that purpose, to be issued without cost: Provided, That before any such soldier, sailor, or marine shall be entitled to the benefits of this act, he shall present his certificate of pension or satisfactory proof that he receives compensation from the Federal Government, which shall be evidence of his disability; if no pensioner nor a receiver of compensation, he shall present a certificate from two reputable physicians that he is unable to procure his living by manual labor. He shall also procure a certificate from the prothonotary of any county in this State that he has filed, in the office of said prothonotary, his affidavit, setting forth that he is the bona fide owner in his own right of all the goods, wares, and merchandise which he proposes to hawk, peddle, and vend, and that he will not engage to sell the same for any other person or persons whatever, and that he will not sell, or attempt to sell, the labeled artificial flowers of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Spanish American War Veterans, and Disabled American Veterans of the World War, namely the poppy, carnation, the buddy poppy, and the forget-me-not, and that he will not sell, or offer to sell, miniature American flags: And provided further, That the aforesaid certificate or proof of compensation, together with such person's discharge from the military or naval service, or an exemplified copy thereof, shall be full and conclusive evidence of such person's rights to the benefits of this act. The prothonotary, issuing such certificate, shall require the applicant to furnish two photographs of the applicant, each bearing the signature of the applicant. One photograph shall be filed with the application, the other shall be attached to the certificate, when issued.

The use of such certificate by anyone, other than the applicant, shall nullify such certificate, and shall nullify the privileges, under this act, of the applicant, permitting such measure.

Any person who shall peddle contrary to the provisions of this act, or in violation of the affidavit which he made to obtain such license shall, upon conviction in a summary proceeding, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than fifty dollars ($50), and in default of the payment of such fine and costs shall be sentenced to imprisonment for a term of ten (10) days.
