No. 486

AN ACT

To further amend clause twenty-three of section one thousand two hundred and ten of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," prohibiting the payments of appropriations to school districts failing to pay minimum salaries and increments prescribed for members of teaching and supervisory staffs.

Clause 23 of section 1210, act of May 18, 1911 (P. L. 309), as added by act of April 28, 1921 (P. L. 328), and last amended by section 3, act of May 6, 1925 (P. L. 547), further amended.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That clause twenty-three of section one thousand two hundred and ten of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred nine), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith," as added by the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws, three hundred twenty-eight), and last amended by section three of the act, approved the sixth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred forty-seven), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

23. The amount apportioned and allotted to each school district shall be divided into equal semi-annual installments, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall draw his [warrants] requisition semi-annually upon the State Treasurer in favor of each district for the amount to which it is entitled, and payment thereof shall be made to fourth class districts during the months of February and August of each year, to second and third class districts during the months of March and September of each year, and to first class districts during the months of April and October of each year.

Payment of amounts due.

[Provided, That reimbursement] Reimbursement on account of salaries required to be paid for extension schools and classes, as herein provided, shall be made to school districts maintaining approved extension schools and classes, established as herein provided, and shall begin with the first semi-annual payment of the biennium beginning the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven: Provided, however, That the Superintendent of Public Instruction may refuse to authorize the payment of any amount payable to any school district for the school year commencing the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, or any school year thereafter, which school district shall, at any time hereafter, fail or refuse to pay to the members of its teaching and supervisory staffs the full amount of the minimum salaries and increments required by this section. He may continue to withhold such requisitions until provision has been made by the school district for the payment of such minimum salaries and increments.

Proviso.

Section 4. The provisions of this act are severable, and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional, the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this act. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein.

Constitutional provision.

Section 5. This act shall become effective the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight.

When effective.

APPROVED—The 1st day of July, A. D. 1937.
