AN ACT

To amend section five hundred forty of the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred thirty-two), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating thereto," further regulating the adjustment of indebtedness where part of a township is annexed to a city of the third class.

The Third Class City Law.

Section 540, act of June 23, 1931, P. L. 932, amended.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section five hundred forty of the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws, nine hundred thirty-two), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating thereto," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 540. Adjustment of Indebtedness when Part of Township is Annexed.—Where any part of any township or outlying lots are annexed to any city, the township officers of that part of the said township not annexed, and the city council of the said city, shall make a just and proper adjustment and apportionment of all public property owned by the said township at the time of said annexation, both real and personal, including funds as well as indebtedness, if any, to and between the said township and the city. In making such adjustment and apportionment of the property and indebtedness, the township and the city shall be entitled respectively to share in a division of the property and indebtedness in the proportion that the assessed valuation of the land remaining in the township bears to the assessed valuation of the land annexed: Provided, however, That where indebtedness was incurred by the township for an improvement located wholly within the annexed part of the township, the whole of such indebtedness shall be assumed by the city, and where any part of any such improvement is located within the annexed part of the township, the part of such indebtedness representing the part of the improvement located within the territory annexed, shall be assumed by the city, and the adjustment and apportionment of any remaining debt, and the public property of the township shall be made as above provided. The adjustment and apportionment as made shall be reduced by writing, and duly executed and acknowledged by the proper officials, and filed in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the county in which said city is located.
