

mortgages and estates in the same manner with like proceedings and with like effect as if said properties had been first exposed to public sale as provided in Article VI but not sold because of insufficient bid. The sale of properties turned over to the bureau under the provisions of this article shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be subject to all the provisions of Article VI in so far as they may be applicable, and when sold at public sale by order of court, as above provided, such properties shall be sold free and discharged from all tax and municipal claims, mortgages, liens, charges and estates whatsoever.

It is the intent of this section that where said property is exposed to a first public sale at the request of the county commissioners or trustee, as above provided, but is not sold because of insufficient bid, the property shall thereafter be sold by order of court as herein provided freed and discharged from all liens and encumbrances as provided under Article VI.

Section 4. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 16th day of May, A. D. 1951.

JOHN S. FINE

---

No. 65

AN ACT

To further amend the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 1379), entitled "An act creating in counties of the third class a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners; providing for their salaries, payable by the county; abolishing existing boards; defining the powers and duties of such board; regulating the assessment of persons, property, and occupations for county, borough, town, township, school, and poor purposes; authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors, a solicitor, engineers, and clerks; providing for their compensation, payable by such counties; abolishing the office of ward, borough, and township assessors, so far as the making of assessments and valuations for taxation is concerned; and providing for the acceptance of this act by cities," by authorizing the payment of additional compensation to subordinate assessors by the boroughs, townships and school districts in which he makes assessments.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Counties of third class.

Section 1. Section four of the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws 1379), entitled "An act creating in counties of the third class a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners; providing for their salaries, payable by the county; abolishing existing boards; defining the powers and duties of such board; regulating the assessment of persons, property, and occupations for county, borough, town, township, school, and poor purposes; authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors, a solicitor, engineers, and clerks; providing for their compensation, payable by such counties; abolishing the office of ward, borough, and township assessors, so far as the making of assessments and valuations for taxation is concerned; and providing for the acceptance of this act by cities," as amended by the act, approved the twenty-sixth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1848), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 4, act of June 26, 1931, P. L. 1379, as amended by act of May 26, 1949, P. L. 1848, further amended.

Assessment districts.

Subordinate assessors.

Engineers and clerks.

Act effective immediately.

Section 4. The said board shall divide the county into convenient districts, which it may change as occasion may require, and shall appoint subordinate assessors for said districts. The subordinate assessors shall receive such compensation as the salary board shall fix, which salaries shall be paid out of the county treasury. In addition to the compensation so fixed and paid by the county, any such subordinate assessor may be paid by any borough, township or school district in which he makes assessments, such compensation as may be authorized by the taxing authorities of such political subdivision, who are hereby empowered to make such additional payments as they may from time to time by ordinance or resolution prescribe. The said board shall also have the right to appoint an engineer or engineers and such clerks, at such salaries as the salary board of the county may allow, for the proper discharge of the duties of said board, which salaries shall be paid out of the county treasury.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

APPROVED—The 16th day of May, A. D. 1951.

JOHN S. FINE

No. 66

AN ACT

To further amend subsection A of section 221, and to amend section 241 of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws 448), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," by extending non-resident fishing privileges to Canadians, and redefining resident.