(9) A contributor, whether an original member or a new member, who is in active service on the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine, may transfer from the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) class to the one one-hundredth (1-100) class: Provided, That he completes the transfer on or before the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine; Provided further, That a person separated from State service on the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine, who returns to State service after such date and rejoins the retirement association may transfer from the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) class to the one one-hundredth (1-100) class, if such transfer is requested in writing within sixty (60) days from the date of this amendment or the date of return to State service, whichever is later: Provided also, That in the event of such transfer, the per centum of salary deductions applicable to such transferred member in the one one-hundredth (1-100) class shall be based upon the same age of the contributor as was used in determining the per centum of salary deduction applicable while in the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) class.

Where a member has transferred from the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) class to the one one-hundredth (1-100) class, as above provided, his State annuity upon retirement shall, except as hereinafter provided, be calculated as follows:

(a) For service prior to the time of transfer, at the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) rate.

(b) For service subsequent to the date of transfer to the date of retirement, at the one one-hundredth (1-100) rate.

(c) For all service prior to the time of commencing contribution, as the time he contributed at the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) rate bears to the total time of contribution, and as the time he contributed at the one one-hundredth (1-100) rate bears to the total time of contribution.

A contributor, whether an original member or a new member on the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine, and who heretofore has transferred or shall hereafter transfer from the one one-hundred-sixtieth (1-160) class to the one one-hundredth (1-100) class, as above provided, may, on or before the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine, pay to the retirement association a sum equal to the difference between the sum of the amounts that would have been deducted from his or her payroll each payroll period since he or she became a member if he or she had elected to contribute in the one one-hundredth (1-100) class, and the sum of the amounts actually deducted, or, in lieu of the payment of a lump sum, a member transferring, as herein provided, may pay such sum in installments through payroll deductions. Such back payments may be spread over a period of years by having such regular payroll deductions of such persons increased by not less than one-third of the amount thereof, which deduction increase shall be credited to such back payments owing and shall be continued until the amount thereof shall be paid in full, unless such member is retired under the provisions of this act before such back payments have been completed. Any such deduction increase may be anticipated in full by the member at any time and shall be anticipated in full at the time of retirement before a retirement allowance is granted, and if not so anticipated, then the member's annuity shall be calculated on the total accumulated deductions standing to his credit and his State annuity shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the reduction which occurs in the member's annuity due to the amount of the back payments not so anticipated. The State annuity, upon retirement of any member having made such payments in full, shall be the same as though the member had elected to contribute in the one one-hundredth (1-100) class immediately upon becoming a member.

Section 4. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment. Act effective immediately.

APPROVED—The 14th day of January, A. D. 1952.
