tution in its own right, but assigned by it to one or more trustees for liquidation and payment to the creditors and stockholders of such banking institutions, it being the intent and purpose of this proviso that no tax be assessed or collected for the years one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, one thousand nine hundred and forty, and thereafter upon the personal property enumerated herein, nor shall this act apply to the proceeds of any life insurance policy held in whole or in part by the insurer, nor the principal value of annuities nor to any personal property held in any trust, forming part of a stock, bonus, pension or profit sharing plan of an employer for the exclusive benefit of his employes, or their beneficiaries, which trust under the latest ruling of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue is exempted from Federal income tax: And provided further, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to building and loan associations, or to shares of stock issued by building and loan associations, or to savings institutions having no capital stock; and, if at any time, either now or hereafter, any persons, individuals, or bodies corporate have agreed or shall hereafter agree to issue his, their, or its securities, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, clear of and free from the said four mills tax herein provided for, or any part thereof, or have agreed or shall hereafter agree to pay the same, nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to relieve or exempt him, it, or them from paying the said four mills tax on any of the said such securities, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, as may be held, owned by, or owing to the said savings institution having no capital stock: And provided further, That the provisions of this act shall not apply to fire companies, firemen's relief associations, life, casualty or fire insurance corporations having no capital stock, secret and beneficial societies, labor unions and labor union relief associations, and all beneficial organizations paying sick or death benefits, or either or both, from funds received from voluntary contributions or assessments upon members of such associations, societies, or unions: And provided further, That corporations, limited partnerships, and joint-stock associations, liable to tax on their shares or the aforesaid capital stock or franchise tax for State purposes, shall not be required to make any report or pay any further tax, under this section, on the mortgages, bonds, and other securities owned by them in their own right; but corporations, limited partnerships, and joint-stock associations, holding such securities as trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, or in any other manner, except as mere custodian for the real owner, and except as executor or administrator of the estate of a nonresident decedent, and except as trustee for a resident or nonresident religious, charitable or educational organization, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, shall return and pay the tax imposed by this section upon all securities so held by them as in the case of individuals: And provided further, That none of the classes of property made taxable by this section for county purposes, and, in cities coextensive with counties, for city and county purposes, shall be taxed or taxable for any other local purpose, under the laws of this Commonwealth: And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to personal property, of the class hereinabove enumerated, received or acquired with proceeds of money or property received from any person or persons, copartnership, or unincorporated association or company, nonresident in or not located within this Commonwealth, or from any joint-stock company or association, limited partnership, bank or corporation formed, erected, or incorporated by, under or in pursuance of, any law of the United States, or of any state or government other than this Commonwealth, by any person or persons, copartnership, unincorporated association, company, joint-stock company or association, limited partnership, bank, or corporation as active trustee, agent, attorney-in-fact, or in any other capacity, for the use, benefit, or advantage of any person or persons, copartnership, or unincorporated association or company, nonresident in or not located within this Commonwealth, or for the use, benefit or advantage of any joint-stock company or association, limited partnership, bank, or corporation formed, erected, or incorporated by, under, or in pursuance of any law of the United States, or of any state or government other than this Commonwealth; nor shall the provisions of this section apply to personal property held for the use, benefit or advantage of any resident who shall have in each of the ten preceding calendar years given or contributed all of his net income to any corporation organized or operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes.

The value of the equitable interest in any personal property made subject to tax by this section shall be measured by ascertaining the value of the personal property in which such resident has the sole equitable interest, or in case of divided equitable interests in the same personal property, then by ascertaining such part of the value of the whole of such personal property as represents the equitable interest of such resident therein.

Method of valuation of taxable shares of stock issued by regulated investment companies.

For the purposes of this act, the value of any taxable shares of stock issued by any regulated investment company, as defined under the provisions of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1948, shall be that part of the current value of such shares, to be determined by multiplying said current value by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the total value of so much of the personal property owned by the regulated investment company as would be taxable by this act if owned by a resident of Pennsylvania and the denominator of which shall be the total value of all of the personal property owned by the regulated investment company.

Act effective immediately.

Section 2. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.
